Wamic News

Mrs. Barbara End returned a week ago Monday from Philomath where she attended the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Katie Goff, who died from Tuberculosis on the 12th of January. Mrs. Goff was a resident of this place many years ago, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simpson Mason. Many of the old time residents remember her as Katie Mason, a sweet faced school girl.

After three weeks with relative and friends in Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kennedy returned home a week ago Monday.

Mrs. Nan Woodcock is much improved in health the past week. A trained nurse is attending her.

Miss Ida Duncan of Smock is a ninth grade pupil in the school here. She is staying at the Mike Kennedy home.

Farlow Bros. shipped 92 fat hogs to Portland Thursday. C. N. Farlow accompanied the car of hogs to Portland. He witnessed the accident to the freight conductor who had his hand crushed while loading a heavy box at Oswego, and assisted in checking the profuse bleeding of the hand prior to the arrival of the doctor. Mr.

Farlow returned Saturday reaching the station in the night, and not wishing to remain for the stage he walked to Tygh through the snow that had fallen the night before.

The cattle growers held a meeting here Saturday to make arrangements for turning stock on the mountain range. F. P. Mays of Tygh attended the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith of Portland visited at the Frank Driver home the latter part of last week, returning home Saturday.

A girl baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ross, the 12th of February at Friend.

The farmers here are jubilant over the recent snow which fell Friday night and Saturday, the depth being about 12 inches. A few days of cold weather was ours recently, the temperature going down to 6 above on the night of the 24th.

The school children gave an entertaining program at the school house Thursday afternoon commemorating both Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays.

Word reached this place that Charley Marlin had a leg and arm broken while working in a logging camp near Seattle. A cable breaking caused the accident.

Car Accident

Friday night when returning home from the banquet A. J. Conroy's car went off the second bridge from the top of the Bakeoven grade, falling some ten or twelve feet and landing on the radiator and one front wheel. Mr. and Mrs. Conroy were the only occupants of the machine and were not injured. T. A. and Tony Connolly were a short distance in the rear and saw the accident. E. J. Fischer was called out to pick up the machine which was said to be able to come out of the canyon on its own power after replacing the damaged wheel with a new one.

The car is thought to have skidded on the bridge, or Mr. Conroy blinded by the snow storm, drove too far to the side.

Yesterday was Little Winifred Kaiser's eighth birthday. Mrs. Kaiser, assisted by Mrs. A. C. Moad, entertained the following little girls after school in honor of the event with chocolate, sandwiches, cake and apples. Bessie Gray, Loraine Stovall, Edna Reel, Mildred Canfield, Nona Styer, Holly Moad, and Winifred Kaiser.

Local Items

John Foley returned home a few days ago, alone, the wedding having been postponed a year on account of the death of Miss Murphy's sister.

A new man with the 'last' opened up business in postoffice building Wednesday morning and has sent a number of patrons betwixt on their way already.

During her spare moments the past few days Mrs. Morgensen has been helping set type for this sheet and the rapidity and accuracy she has acquired in so short a time is excellent.

While Maupin has not had the depth of snow neighboring sections report, we experienced a snow storm and some cold weather the past week.

A fire started at Mrs. Gray's Wednesday afternoon by the burning out of the flue. Mrs. McShane and E. J. Styer, being the nearest, were the first volunteers to arrive, the latter extinguished the fire by throwing a pot of beans on the roof.

Fred. Hornquist and Hugh Knight of the Criterion section were business callers in town Tuesday. The latter and ye scribe attended the Mt. Hood school sixteen years ago when one room housed the would be generals and ladies, and this was our first meeting then.

Criterion

We are enjoying a little much needed snow.

The patrons of the Criterion school voted to put in a windmill and cement reservoir.

Mrs. A. M. Orcutt of Kent is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Miller.

G. W. Miller is going into the turkey business. He has one gobbler.

About midnight Saturday someone called G. G. Skogsberg up on the phone and being as that is a new institution in this neck of the woods, he immediately answered it, and they asked if he had any dry cows, and on receiving an affirmative answer, asked why he didn't water them, and then hung up, and Charley is still wondering if it is a joke.

Tygh Valley 2

Mrs. McCowan went to her home in The Dalles Tuesday.

Mark Rowan and wife made a business visit to The Dalles last week.

Those of this place who attended the opening of the Hotel Kelly are, K. L. Hauser and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Butler, and Mrs. Weisbeck.

K. L. Hauser was transacting business in The Dalles last week. Stilwell's have been entertaining relatives this week.

Wapinitia Items

Our beautiful spring weather has become a thing of the past, about 14 inches of snow now covers the ground, but everyone is rejoicing as this practically insures plenty of moisture.

Mrs. Fidelia Ingraham of Lents arrived here Monday to be with her father, 'Uncle' Gid Rains, who is lying very low.

Henry Richardson had the misfortune to lose one of his best horses last week.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Flinn returned home from Portland and Vancouver Saturday.

Miss Lois Batty returned home from The Dalles the last of the Opening Hotel Kelly

About 200 people attended the banquet and dance given at the new Hotel Kelly last Friday evening and the feasting lasted until eleven o'clock. No effort was spared by the proprietors and Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Kelly to make the affair a success. The tables were loaded with everything that heart could wish of good things to which ample justice was done by the guests.

A little disappointment was experienced by a number of those arriving later in the evening, when the chef refused to dish up any more food and destroyed considerable already prepared, but such is not likely to occur again, as Mr. Reel has taken the work in the kitchen himself, and from the capable and ever ready manner in which he has served his patrons at Tygh, we may rest assured of a square meal whenever calling at the Hotel Kelly.

Dancing was enjoyed during the evening and the Maupin Five Piece Orchestra furnished music for the occasion.

The hotel is an addition of which Maupin may be proud. It is completely modern throughout including bath, lavatory, steam heat, and lighted throughout with electricity. The rooms and furnishings are elegant and offer a magnificent view of the river.

Mrs. Mayme Smith and son Tommy went to Prineville Tuesday to remain till fall.

DELCO-LIGHT
ELECTRICITY FOR EVERY FARM

DELCO-LIGHT MAKES ELECTRICITY UNIVERSAL

For the first time electric light and power are available to anyone—anywhere. Heretofore, the benefits of electricity have been confined to those who live in the larger towns and cities. Now Delco-Light makes electric current universally available.

Delco-Light is being furnished to thousands of farm-houses with battery, generator, safe and economical.

It is furnishing power to operate pumps, washing machines, clothes, cream separators, milking machines, vacuum cleaners, etc.

It is lighting country churches, stores and public halls.

It is furnishing light and power to summer homes and camps, to houseboats and yachts, etc.

Delco-Light is a complete plant—the engine and dynamo in one chamber and equipped with a set of specially built and waterproofed electrical apparatus for the storing of current. The plant is so simple a child can care for it, and so economical that it actually pays for itself in time and labor saved. It operates on either kerosene, gasoline or electrical gas.

It is lighting rural railway stations and construction camps.

It is lighting the camps of United States troops on the Mexican border and it is disclosing heretofore undreamed-of beauties in the depths of Mammoth Cave, Kentucky.

Altogether, over 15,000 Delco-Light plants are in operation, and Delco-Light offices are to be found in almost every part of the world.
