Then and Now

The following conversation took place between a Texas farmer and his local dealer, according to a local paper:

"Good morning, Si."

"Good morning, Hi."

"I say, Si, what is the price of that wagon over yonder?"

"$90, Hi."

"$90! Why, my father bought the same wagon 80 years ago for $60."

"Yes, Si, he did, and he bought it of me, but as money was scarce at that time and I wanted some corn, your father delivered to me 300 bushels of corn in payment for the $60 wagon, and I can use more corn at this time, and I will make the same trade with you today as I did with your father
