

Tygh Valley Shop

General Blacksmithing

And Wagon Work Heavy and Light
Horse Shoeing a Specialty

First Class Plow Work - Cast Plow Shares Ground
Break Blocks Heavy and Light Ready Made up
Don't forget the Old Stand and its new manager

Wm. L. MORRISON

Phone in Shop

Orders taken for loose grain boxes Fraley style also up-to-date
flaring boxes and Calif'nia racks

Smock Items

Mrs. N. C. Jones is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Bichsel and family. C. A. Bargainholt was a business visitor at Tygh Thursday.

C. N. Farlow began plowing Monday on his mother's ranch with E. E. Parrish and Chas. Embree helping. Mrs. Alta Stakely is assisting Mrs. Farlow in the cullinary department.

Wm. Lucas was transacting business in our neighborhood Thursday.

Miss Ella Syron spent Sunday at her fathers. Miss Syron taught the winter term at the Derthick school and has been employed for the spring term with advance of salary.

E. E. Parrish was a Sunday caller at S. H. Mulvaney's.

Sid Mulvaney spent Sunday with Glen Large at A. J. Hill's.

I. T. Courtright was transacting business at Wamic Tuesday.

J. W. Farlow made a trip to the Flat Saturday bringing a load of grain home.

Prof. J. W. Patterson was a Wapinitia visitor Saturday.

Mrs. C. V. McNeil and Mrs. Mary Spoor visited Mrs. Bargainholt Friday.

Whitcomb and Syron with their woodsaw were employed by David Mayfield last week; this week, are sawing for S. G. Ledford.

Mrs. R. C. Duncan and Mrs. S. H. Mulvaney visited Friday with Mrs. Bessie Gesh north of Wamic.

Miss Ida Duncan accompanied them home from Wamic. She attends school at that place.

The Yockey children were absent from school Monday with severe colds and sore throats.

Adelpha Farlow visited Saturday and Sunday with Leone Whitcomb at C. S. McCorkle's.

John Howell has rented his ranch to Fred Bichsel.

O. R. Fleck and wife drove to Tygh Friday, taking their baby to Dr. Shannon for medical aid.

W. H. Mayfield and sons are beautifying their home by plowing and grading their yard and seeding with lawn grass.

A number of our farmers spent last week working the upper road crossing White river, a force of men and teams plowing, grading and blasting. They now have a No. 1 grade.

Wayne Spoor with four horses made a trip to Harvey Martin's near Sherar, bringing a load of barley. Mrs. Spoor accompanied him as far as Wamic and visited her brother Frank Magill.

We are glad to note the improving health of our Smock reporter.

Mrs. W. T. Vanderpool and grandson Harvey, are visiting this week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Moad.

An attempt is being made to have a race horse fair at the local track some time in May or June.

The building formerly used by Shattuck Bros. for an oil and paint room has been moved up north of the Bank and Mr. Gilbert is remodeling it for garage.

Remember Lake's big special on Saturdays.

Note the date opposite your name on your paper for expiration of subscription.

Large sheets of carbon paper for embroidery stamping at the Times

Are you using The Times liner column when you have any thing to sell or want to buy some article that your neighbor may have or wishes to dispose of? If not try a want ad in that column. We are sure that it will bring results.