Local Items

Mrs. Bleakney and daughter Ethyle were in shopping from Sour Dough Flat yesterday.

The Kaiser of Maupin is preparing for war, raising all kinds of garden and Belgian hares.

Stewart and Floyd McLeod passed through Maupin Thursday from Criterion to Kingsley; stopped at W. H. Staats and purchased a new plow.

April 11th Victor Mitchell came down from Eagle creek to join the regulars. Mr. Mitchell was a soldier in the Philippine war.

D. N. Riess and wife stopped at the Maupin hotel April 8th on their way to the valley. They have been visiting friends at Criterion.

April 11th some unruly boys broke into the home of Hiram Peterson and partner and took about $20 worth of provisions. Officers are investigating matters.

Sunday's ball game was a hummer—13 innings, 3 to 3 score. A feature of the game was the few errors made by either team. These two aggregations will play at Tygh Valley, Sunday, April 14th.

Sunday's was the farewell issue of The Dalles Morning Sun. This little paper was started about the same time as the Times and by the same man, and partly for this fact and more from our pleasant acquaintance with Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, who have had charge of it the past two years, we have had a very sisterly feeling for the little sheet.

Alva Andrews left here Wednesday evening for Portland to enlist in the engineer corps of the U. S. Army.

Chester Morris came down from Prineville a few days ago and will play in the Tygh ball team Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oris Kellar who have been camping in the Chastain house above town, moved back to their homestead above Wapinitia Wednesday.

M. F. Goodenough was in Wednesday to prove up on his homestead before U. S. Commissioner Stuart.

For the greater part of the local news this week we are indebted to John Muir, who has proven his excellent ability in the editorial line by rustling for the Times yesterday.

Free Methodist Church

The revival is now in progress at the Free Methodist church. Evangelist W. T. Kloitsback of St. Louis, Mo., is a man of wide experience, having preached in many states of the Union. Do not fail to hear him. Meeting every night at 8. Come.

W. C. Vanderpool took Mr. Phillips, a traveling man, to Wapinitia, Tygh Valley, Dufur and other points of this country Thursday.

Geo. Vanderpool's water reservoir broke Wednesday and considerable apprehension is felt for the Cillo locks.

FLOUR MILL FOR MAUPIN

Machinery Here

F. H. Woodcock & Son are preparing to install a flour mill in Maupin in the near future. Part of the machinery has already arrived at the O. W. depot. The location for the building is yet undecided, but a number suitable sites are available.
