LOOK!

A Farmer walked into Lake's Cash Store and asked the price of an axe. Mr. Lake showed him a standard make, telling him his price on the same was $2.

"Why you are a regular robber," said the customer. "I can buy the same thing from the mail order house for $1.79

"Very well," said Mr. Lake, "I'll meet their price."

The Farmer counted out $1.79.

"Now" said Mr. Lake, "You owe me two cents for your stamp, three cents for your money order, twenty cents for postage; that makes $2.04. Come around in six days and I'll give you your axe

H. S. Term Closed

Our high school Students have completed the work for the year and are deserving a great deal of credit for the results accomplished. The monthly reports show that they have made a general average of 94.7 per cent in attendance. Taking into consideration that this is the first year that this district has taken up the high school work and that the decision was not made until the latter part of August we feel that the school has been a grand success. Plans for next years work are being made and several students from outside districts are planning to attend school here. Following are the students who were enrolled this year: Louis Emmons, Clifford Morrow, Lewis Dearthick, Violet Miller, Vera Causey, Van Moad, Lela Chastain, Daphene Dyer, Nelle Harphan, Guy Fryman, Virgil Mayhew, Louise Morgensen, Roy Morrow, Willis Baker, Daphne Conley, Cattie Young, Cleo L. ## Farmers Everywhere Prefer Case Threshing Rigs

Three threshermen buy Case thresher rigs each year to one who buys any other make. If others prefer Case, there must be a reason why you should.

Their chief reason lies in the quality produced by Case experience of three-quarters of a century. That experience means satisfaction to them—and to you.

We can supply you with any size tractor and thresher you need, but the Case 12-25 shown above is one of the handiest models. It will run a 26x46-inch or smaller Case Thresher and will do almost any job on the farm. Ask for catalog or inquire of us for full particulars.
