Our hopes of June rains have vanished. This is the second time in over 20 years that it has failed to rain some during June. Even with a rain a few days, crops will be very short as the heads of the grain are all formed and headed out and in most places there isn't sufficient moisture to fill it.

Ira White of Hood River was visiting relatives here and at Waino this week. He returned Tuesday.

M. H. Staines and family came out here from The Dalles Tuesday to pack up their household goods. They are preparing to move to The Dalles where Mr. Staines has taken the pastorate of the U. B. church.

Word was received here that the pastor appointed for this year was not coming, so we will be without a pastor for a while at least.

Vincent Tapp who was operated on at The Dalles some time ago returned to his home Tuesday and is feeling fine.

Quite an exodus from here Friday and Saturday to attend the big circus in The Dalles, but all were sorely disappointed as the show failed to appear on account of the railroad track being torn out east of there. Among those going from here were Mr. and Mrs. R. W. McCorkle and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Eubank, Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Tapp and Robert, Mr. and Mrs. D. Woodside, Kath Amen, Vivian Barzee, Mr. and Mrs. Mose Delore, Mr. and Mrs. Hartman and Crystal.

N. G. Hedlin and W. B. Keen went to Portland Monday morning to attend a trial there.

Frank Richardson had the misfortune Sunday afternoon to get one of his fingers shot up quite badly while handling a 22 rifle. In some way the gun was discharged while his finger was over the end of the barrel. Ollie Weberg took him immediately to Tygh to have it dressed.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Foreman went to The Dalles Friday, returning Saturday. Mr. Foreman is receiving medical treatment there every week. Mrs. Frank Gabel accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Knopf were called to Portland Saturday by the death of Mrs. Knopf's father, Mr. George who resides in Wu. Mr. Delore took them to The Dalles in his car.

Mrs. Lizzie Davis and children returned to their home in Madras Wednesday.

Frank Gabel who has been in The Dalles a number of months receiving medical treatment came out to his home here Saturday with Mr. Foreman's and stayed till Sunday evening when his son Harry took him back to The Dalles. Mr. Gabel is getting along fine and has hopes of soon being able to return to his home.

Pearl Evick made a trip to The Dalles Saturday, returning Sunday. Mack Hollaman and daughters Glennie and Sylvia accompanied him.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Maynard, Mr. Doyle and family left here Tuesday for Beaver creek to camp over the 4th.

Clarence Alexander was transacting business at Hartman's saw mill Tuesday.

Ed Davis butchered a fine beef last week.

Arthur Rice left Tuesday for Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Wright left

Some hot weather has been experienced the past few days.

Mrs. Philmore gave a party for Florence who was eight years old yesterday. A number of her little friends were invited and enjoyed a fine time on the banks of the Bakeoven. A good home dinner accompanied by some sweet meats was enjoyed at noon.

Stata's store had the distinction of being the only business house in town to close up and go to Tygh full force.

The Union Pacific System has just issued a folder map of the U. S., which on account of its convenient form and the important information it contains should at this particular time be of unusual value to the public. Copies will be sent without cost on application to agents.

Big Celebration

Tygh Valley held the National Activities of the year for this county. The inviting picnic location of the fair grounds attracted many from all sections, to go and enjoy one or both days.

The program and sports were somewhat brief, but if they were lacking in anything, the half dozen stands on the grounds were not and were largely patronized by the crowds on the grounds.

Vanderpool Bros. have employed the services of an expert mechanic, Wallace Muir, formerly of the Walther-Williams garage, The Dalles, and are handling the most complicated car troubles to the satisfaction of all.

A Straight Tip On The Fuel And Lumber Situation.

We are in the Grip of the Worst Shortage the World has ever known—and getting worse.

Ninty per cent of all Fuel Shipments will be made during the Summer months.

Next to Fuel, shipments of Silo and Granary material will have precedence over all others as this tends to increase the country's food supply.

May we suggest that you anticipate your wants and order your supplies at once. We will be pleased to talk these matters over in person.

"See Peter Kilburg about it!"
