Swimming Party

Miss Katheryn was one of the most elaborately entertained of Maupin's guests during her recent visit here.

Mrs. R. W. McShane entertained in her honor Friday evening the Misses Phyllis Fischer, Mary Flanagan, Violet Miller and Lydia Westergard.

Saturday evening the island above the bridge which has become so popular as a cooling resort this summer was the scene of a pleasant gathering in the way of a farewell reception for Miss McShane who left on the night's train for Moxee City, Wn. Swimming in the shallow channel of the river on the west side of the island was the diversion until 10 o'clock, when supper of sandwiches, roast weiners, cake and coffee was prepared for and served at 11:30. The party then gathered at the depot platform until train time.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. W. McShane and family, R. Kaiser and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. Flanagan, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Moad and Holly, Mrs. Butler, Mrs. Styer, Misses Katheryn McShane, Phyllis Fischer, Mary Flanagan, Lydia Westergard, Violet Miller, Messers Jas. Harphan, Tony Connolly, Van Moad, Jas. Lake. The Moads and Gilberts roosted on the island the rest of the night.

Burned to Death

The Dalles, Ore., Aug. 15.—Miss Daphene Conley, 16, daughter of C. C. Conley of Tygh Valley, is dead and her sister, Miss Nell Conley, 16, is in a local hospital, suffering from burns about the hands and arms as a result of her frantic attempt to tear burning clothing from her sister following a fire which partly destroyed the home of Mrs. S. E. Miller at Kelly avenue and Webster streets here, at 10 o'clock Tuesday night. Owing to the critical condition of Nell, she has not yet been informed of her sister's death.

The girls' parents came to The Dalles this morning from Tygh Valley.

The girls were filling a gasoline lamp by the light of a match held by the older sister, when the fumes lighted, causing a burst of flame that ignited the girls' clothing.

Interment was made in the Hauser cemetery near Tygh yesterday afternoon, with services conducted by Rev. M. H. Staines of The Dalles, and largely attended by many friends of the young lady. Four large car loads went from here. A large, beautiful display of cut flowers were offered, one number of which was sent by the Maupin school where Miss Conley was a student the last year. She was also a member of the local Glee club, other members of which were present, and stayed at the D. M. Shattuck home last winter, and intended to attend school here again this year, and was very popular among her friends and associates.

The bereaved parents and brothers and sisters have the sympathy of a host of friends.

Wapinitia Items

Regular August weather, hot, sultry, smoky, and a great deal of sickness.

Among those on the sick list are Chas. Delore, who has been down for several days. Dr. Elwood is attending him; Nova Hadin has been sick several days, also little Frank Richardson.

Many people are passing through here every day for the mountains. The report is that huckleberries will begin ripening about the 25th. G. E. Wood commenced hauling grain to Maupin Thursday.

Leonard, Sidney and Ruby Wilson, Ray Tunison and Ira Flinn made a trip to The Dalles Saturday.

G. E. Wood purchased a fine beef Monday.

A. F. Erick is closing out his store here.

Mrs. May Barzee who has been at The Dalles hospital the past month returned home Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kayler met her at the train and brought her up.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Flinn and sons visited at the Geo. Magill home in Wamic Friday.

Emil Heukler purchased a team of Mr. Bevier Monday.

A large crowd was present at a reception given Mr. and Mrs. Bevier, Monday evening.

Miss Edna Whipple, state president of the Y. P. C. E. will be at this place September 5th and hold services. Everyone plan on coming, for Miss Whipple is excellent and a good time is assured.

Pine Grove

Rev. Brevier, Wapinitia's new pastor will visit Pine Grove Sunday school next Sunday and following that service will preach the 11 o'clock sermon. Everybody is welcome and nearly everybody takes advantage of the opportunities to hear good speakers who visit Pine Grove.

Karl and Chester Shetterby and Mr. Rogers of Redmond visited the Wapinitia irrigation camps and took in the fishing on Clear Lake Tuesday.

E. E. Miller paid Wapinitia a flying visit Wednesday and Thursday and stopped over to attend the Saturday pre-celebration conference at D. Woodside's.

Mrs. Wm. Hickey has come from Portland and is now camped with her son and husband at the 'Big Cut.'

Farmers are buying shotgun shells and it looks like they expect the Germans, but some folks say it is Mallard ducks they are preparing defense against.

The McCorkle threshing outfit had another fire scare today, Monday, when the header box loaded with bundle grain got too close to the engine stack. Sparks lit in the grain and soon all hands were needed to save the wagon and team. The header box was upset by shear force and emptied of its fiery contents. The loss will be one header rack and $20 worth of grain. The fire occurred on Fen Batty's ranch three miles north of Wapinitia.

On Saturday night, the 11th, a representative body of farmers and their wives met with the merchants and others at the home of D. Woodside of Wapinitia to discuss the ways and means of the harvest and water celebration. The date chosen for the gala function is September 12, at Pine Grove six miles west of Wapinitia, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. The Tygh Valley Fair will be held the 18th, 19th and 20th, so the dates do not conflict.

New Schoolhouse

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lucas were in from the Wamic section Tuesday, and as representatives of the Pine Grove school near their place have secured the services of Contractor Wilhelm and assistants to erect them a new school building in time for the fall term. The present structure was spread and rendered unsafe for use during the snow last winter.

Wilson-Tapp

(Wapinitia)
Sidney Wilson and Winnie Tapp were united in marriage at the bride's home here Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock by Rev. Staines. The ceremony was witnessed by the relatives, and Mrs. Staines and family and Grandma Heitz of The Dalles. There was quite a crowd of young people gathered outside of the house and one was keeping watch through the window, and as the word was said that made them one, the crowd offered congratulations by the firing of guns, ringing of bells, etc. Mr. Wilson treated them all at Hartman's store. After the wedding supper was partaken of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left for The Dalles and went on to Portland

Wee Laddie

To Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Kollogg Tuesday at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Myrtle Brittain on White River, a 2-1-2 pound son was born.

for a few days' visit there.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are very prominent and highly respected young people of this place and everyone joins in wishing them the very best success on life's journey.

Mr. Wilson was called to The Dalles Saturday and successfully passed the examination and signed up for the army, and expects to be called during September to go into training.

J. H. and Floyd Eubanks were business callers in town yesterday.
