Miss Katherine Spath accompanied Carl Pratt on his return home from The Dalles Tuesday, remaining till today.
The car craze still continues here and every one is vying with his neighbor for a finer car. Geo. Crawford has exchanged his Ford for a Vealio, the new car being a $1500 auto.
Telegraph Operator Carl Pratt

has had much trouble with broken and twisted telephone wires the latter part of the week, due to the Driver thresher passing and re-passing under the wires, the tall derick doing the damage.
A Wilkenson of The Dalles was here last week introducing his Vealio car. Mrs. W. H. Magill purchased a $1200 car.
W. S. Drake of Portland was a Wednesday night guest at the Swift house.
Little Wilma Norvel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vard Norvel, while at the home of her grandparents here, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Norvel, was kicked by a horse tied near the gate where the child wandered through. Dr. Dodds was summoned from Dufur and pronounced the injury light.
Excitement ran high here Friday among the more suspicious persons when a man, representing to be a book agent selling a medical work, passed through the neighborhood. His peculiar actions emphasized by exaggeration, caused much talk and some worry. (concluded next week)

Mr. and Mrs. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bichsel and Mr. and Mrs. David Mayfield were over from Wamic yesterday.
Why take a bath in a wash tub when you can get a real bath at Styer's barber shop in the Post-office building, Maupin.
A lecture on the present war and its prophetic reference will be delivered tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock on W. H. Staats' lawn. Good music and a fine chorus will open the service. Come early. Free, sing with us.
Fords painted with Makemnu enamel $15. Bring your car in the morning and take it out at night ready for you.—Maupin Garage. p6mjun14
The mail-order houses did extensive advertising here this week, twelve mail sacks of catalogues being received from Sears, Roebuck, and one from Montgomery Ward.
Mr. Murphy of Friend who is closing out a meat market at that place, was in town Tuesday and announced his intention to open a market here about the 15th, in the Hepp building, formerly occupied by E. J. Styer.
Uncle John Gordon and granddaughter, Ida Gordon arrived here Tuesday from Catalaw Valley and were met by relatives, taking them on to Smock. They say wild hay is the only crop there this year and are glad to come here where things to eat grow.
R. P. Burkhead of Sumpter, Oregon, was here the week end visiting his sister, Mrs. G. R. Crofoot. Mr. Burkhead has now gone to enlist in the marines.
