Mrs. Nettie Miller who was buried here week before last and who died in the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, was a pioneer resident of this place, having come here with her husband, Samuel Roberts, when the country was new and unsettled. Mrs. Miller leaves five children by this union: Mrs. Susie Koepp of Gresham, Frank Roberts of Prarie City, Bert Roberts of Bend, Mrs. Ida McCoy and Claud Roberts of this place. After the death of Mr. Roberts she was married to Geo. Miller who died some eight years ago. Three children were born to them. They are Mrs. Ada Snodgrass of Juniper Flat, Mrs. Violet Crabtree of Flanagan and Don Miller of Wapinitia. Twelve grandchildren and two great grandchildren survive her. Mrs. Miller was a very estimable woman and possessed a wonderful memory. The date of the births of all her acquaintances was one of the special features of her memory, and she could without hesitation, tell the birthday of all her acquaintances. A large concourse of people assembled at her funeral which was held at Four Corners cemetery.

Several transfers of property have taken place here recently. Geo. McGill bought 200 acres of farm land from J. E. Kennedy, known as the Stakely place, the purchase price being $7000. Mike Urban purchased 150 acres from W. E. Johnson, the Fred Chandler place, paying $3000. Mrs. Martha Dean bought the Jack Fraley house here in town, paying $400 for the property.
