Pine Grove

Wapinitia Plains Commercial Club met Dec. 1st, at 8 P. M. in Evick's hall. The Club opened the books for new members, for the charter list; 34 members were received. Ladies joined free of cost, old club members were given credit for one year's dues in the new organization. A special program was given including school children; Wapinitia Band rendered several selections; special mention mention might be made of the Cornet solo by Prof. David Marr of Yamhill county, who played "The Holy City". He was accompanied by Miss Ruby Wilson.

Mrs. Cyr sang splendidly, a solo, entitled, "Let's all be Americans now."

Senator J. L. Henkle was unable to attend and deliver his address. President Geo. Wood made a short address, explaining the use and purposes of the club. After the programme N. G. Hedin spoke briefly of Oregon's resources, its great national wealth, he also explained the Wapinitia Irrigation company's position, as to rights, its possibilities, its water shed; and the progress of the Wapinitia Plains country. After the address a bountiful supper, with chicken, pies, cake, and coffee, was served. The club meeting was followed by a dancing party, the Wapinitia Band played. The Club meets again the first Saturday in January.
