Too Much Mother-in-law

Shattuck's Hall

Dec. 28, '17

M. H. S.

Who's Who

Professor John B. Wise — A poor married man
Dr. Matthew Graham — A Country Physician
Billie Blake — A college boy
Jupiter Jackson — A black trump
Mrs. Iona Ford — some mother-in-law
Zoie — Her charming daughter
June Graham — A Little Freshman
Rosalind Wilson — College reporter
—College Boys and Girls—

Orchestra Music

ACT I. Living room in the professor's bungalow. The students prepare a hot reception for the professor and his bride. The pretty college reporter writes up the home coming. The dummy bride. Jupiter has trouble with the "decoration." "Well I'll be dog-goned." The bride's mother arrives. "Is this a lunatic asylum?" "No, lady, its only a college town." "That's the same thing!" "Here comes the bride." A befuddled bridegroom. "Is dat young bippopotamus our little pet dog Socrates?" "Say, how old is my daughter?" "I should say about twenty." Then how old is my wife? "Well she must be at least twentyone." Lobster salad and mysterious disappearances. A modern Lucrezia Borgin, Getting rid of Socrates. "My dear, you're married a lunatic!"

ACT II. Same scene as Act I. Billie and Zoie. "Professor, I love your wife." "Take her mother." Dr. Graham and his modest little daughter make a great impression on the professor. "We'll get a divorce." A peaceful little lunch. "Good lawsey me, I'se poisoned, I'se a dead nigger, I'se a gone coon!" Off for Reno.

ACT III. Two years later. A happy family. Marriage is not a failure. A letter from Billy. Doctor Graham and his bride. "She's like a violet, a little, timid, shrinking violet!" June mistakes Zoie for her new mamma. "You have deceived me, sir; I'll get a divorce." The professor's nightmare Billy's trip to China and what he found there. "Marriage is a great and grand success."
