Be Good

"An' the Gobbles-uns 'll git you

Et, you don't watch out." — A baker in Macksville, Kan., turned down Red Cross solicitors in a chilly manner and with harsh words. "Within a week," says Capper's Weekly, "a spontaneous boycott among the women had put him out of business. He protested at great length through the local paper that he was loyal, but to no effect. Which, in the opinion of the Toronto Republican, is further evidence that the hand which rocks the cradle also carries rocks for Mr. Boche."

Church Notice

Rev. John G. Hessler, Pastor. Services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. every Sunday, S. S. at 10 o'clock; prayer meeting on Thursday night.

The general public are cordially invited to all these services. Should you desire the pastor to call, drop him a line to Maupin.

Notice

Apparently no attention has been paid to the warning in the last issue of this paper in regard to allowing hogs to run the streets of Maupin, so if they are not taken care of I will shut them up and the owners will have to pay the costs. W. H. Staats.
