MAUPIN SOUTHERN WASCO COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, MARCH 1, 1918

THE YEAR $1.50

SENT IN BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS

Pine Grove

John Boen, employee at N. G. Hedin's saw mill, was cut in the main saw on the right forearm Friday forenoon. The cut may prove serious as some cords were cut and may render the strength of the hand and arm less. Mr. Hedin's mill employees are all under the State Accident Commission Insurance protection and Mr. Boen will get prompt relief at the Commission rates.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Mayfield have been enjoying a whirlwind of social events in the past week, dances, receptions and more dances in succession. Everyone is pleased to see the spirit of the younger set to show them a good time as they start the long journey of wedded bliss.

N. G. Hedin and family attended the Redmond deliberations of the Central Oregon Irrigation school 18th to 23rd. All the Central Oregon projects from Wapinitia Irrigation Co. on the north to the state line on the south were represented. The instruction was very high class and of the most practical kind. The best of authorities in the state delivered lectures for the week.

Tygh Valley

R. D. Hewitt reports the arrival of an 8 1-2 pound girl at Albany, Oregon. All are doing well.

T. C. Jones and sister of Wamic were attending the basket ball game here Monday.

John Bohn who had the misfortune to get his arm caught in a saw at Wapinitia is here under Dr. Shannon's care and doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. George Foster are visiting the latter's parent E. C. Fitzpatrick this week.

Miss M. J. Harper was a business visitor in Portland last week.

Dr. Shannon, K. L. Hauser and R. W. McCorkle were appointed a committee to interview the Maupin telephone association at the last meeting of the Tygh switchboard association at which time there were no bids in for running the board for the ensuing year and the present switchman was retained for another month, a meeting to be called in the meantime.

J. T. Harper will install the gas station recently purchased from Shattuck Bros. in front of his store.

The high school basket ball team are having some good practice games with some of the older and heavier teams.

The spelling contest between Tygh and Wamic schools that was held here on the 22nd resulted in a victory for the former. This makes it a "hoss and a hoss".

W. H. McAtee made a business trip to the Willamette valley the past week. George Lofton looked after the band of sheep in Mr. McAtee's absence.

R. D. Hewitt went to Kingsley Saturday to get his car where it got stalled in the snow a week ago.

T. J. Swift of Wamic was a caller in this burg on Tuesday.

Clyde Oliver and Elmer Munier were Maupin callers Monday.

Wamic News

Geo. Duncan made an early trip to Sherar Sunday a week ago taking his brother Marion who was returning to Camp Lewis, Wn after a two days' visit with his parents and family.

Miss Dorothy McCorkle returned Sunday a week ago to The Dalles after spending a week at her home.

Richard Palmateer attended the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Elia Traxtell at Happy Ridge Sunday. Mrs. Traxtell died in the Willamette Valley and the remains were brought there for burial. Will Beaty of Hood River attended the funeral also. Some misunderstanding made arrangements for the funeral to be held at Tygh and Phillip and Ernest McCorkle and M. Munger went to Sherar Saturday to meet the funeral cortege, but later Mr. Beaty learned that interment would be made at Happy Ridge and Ernest McCorkle and J. McCarty went to Friend and conveyed the remains to that place. Mrs. Traxtell was a former resident of this place, having lived here some 28 years ago with her former husband, Wesley Palmateer. Her husband Joseph Traxtell and five children survive her. Mrs. Traxtell won many friends by her genial disposition.

A wintry spell visited this place last week when the thermometer registered 21 degrees on the nights of the 18th and 19th and 18 degrees above on the 20th. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Woodcock entertained a number of their friends Monday night with cards, ice cream and cake were served. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Swift gave a card party Wednesday night. Luncheon was served.

Tygh Valley gave a dinner and school entertainment to the Wamic pupil Friday. A spelling contest between the two schools was won by the Tygh students. A program commemorating George Washington was pleasingly rendered. Many attended the entertainment which was held in the O. F. hall. Among those from here witnessing the entertainment were W. E. Woodcock, Mrs. L. Morely and Mrs. T. J. Swift.

Andy Booth and Willard Wing gave a dance in the Mercer house Friday night. A basket supper was served. Henry Miller furnished music for the dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller came near losing their house by fire Saturday morning - when the roof caught fire, supposedly by an overheated stovepipe. They had returned from the Middlebrook dance at about four o'clock in the morning and had built a fire in the heater, the family retiring and sleeping until late in the morning. George and Fred Miller were sleeping upstairs and on waking about ten o'clock saw through a manhole in the ceiling flames issuing from the roof and hurriedly gave the alarm. Mr. Miller went to the attic and Mrs. Miller and the boys carried water and banded to him with which he extinguished the fire. Marion Burlingame who happened to be at the Miller home assisted by climbing to the roof. About three feet of the roof had burned on both sides of the pipe before the fire was entirely extinguished.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Harvey entertained with cards at their farm home Saturday night. Luncheon was served.

A spelling contest between the grown ups and school children will be held Friday night at the school house.

"Grandma Kinworthy" was very ill last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frankie Palmateer.

The stockmen held a meeting here Saturday afternoon.

Willis Norvel and family went to Juniper to visit at the home of Vard Norvel Sunday.

Herman Gash went to The Dalles Sunday.

Wapinitia Items

March weather prevails this week.

Dee Woodside left Monday for Portland. He intends purchasing some thorough bred stock while there.

N. W. Flinn returned home from Portland Sunday.

Henry Richardson received a telegram from Portland Thursday saying his mother was very sick. She is an old resident of Maupin.

Mrs. Foreman and W. E. Foreman were Maupin visitors Saturday.

Chas. Cline left the last of the week for Hunt's ranch across the Deschutes where he will herd sheep. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Brown were visiting at The Dalles last week.

Elmer Brown arrived here Wednesday from Goldendale, Wn., and is employed at Lu Kelly's.

A new S. S. has been organized in the Powell district. J. M. Powell is superintendent.

The Hedin mill finished sawing Monday but a small crew is there piling lumber. About a foot of snow covers the ground there.

A dance was given in the Lewis hall Friday night.

Robert Tapp writes from Mare Island that he is well and satisfied with his work. He also stated to his parents that he would like to tell them what he was doing, but that it would be giving away secrets; he said he had no drilling at all.

A large crowd was present Friday night at the community sing at the school house given by our teacher Mrs. Bigbee. They spent the evening singing the old fashioned songs and all had a most

Foley-Murphy

John Foley and bride, nee Miss Kate Murphy, arrived Wednesday from San Francisco and are residing on the former farm east of Maupin. It will be remembered the wedding was so have taken place a year ago, but a sister of the bride died very suddenly a short time before and the event was postponed until a few days ago. Mrs. Thomas Faherty is an old friend of the bride and accompanied them from The Dalles.

Mrs. Traxtle Dead

Mrs. Joseph Traxtle, for many years a resident of Tygh Valley died very suddenly last Friday at Lebanon where she and her family had been for a few week. Heart failure was the cause of her death. The remains were brought to Tygh Valley and interred at the Traxtle homestead.

Mrs. Traxtle was born in Iowa 53 years ago and when but five years of age, she with her parents crossed the plains to Oregon, the trip being made in an ox wagon.

She leaves a husband, one son and two daughters. A brother, Mark P. Rowan, also survives. - Dispatch, Feb. 22.

Lecture

The Shadow of the Cross will be the subject at the I. O. O. F. hall Sunday night, March 3. This will be a subject you will be interested in. The Cross of Christ is the central theme of both the old and new Testaments. The Bible will be a new book to you if you fully understand this subject. J. A. Reiber, Evangelist.

enjoyable time.

The school here has received a fine new basket ball and will organize a team soon and be prepared to play at other places.

Donald Nelson came home from The Dalles Sunday and will help with the spring work.

Lincoln Hartman came home from Portland Wednesday where he is attending business college. He expects to return the last of the week.

A. R. Chase and Miss Martha Beckan visited the different communities on the Flat Tuesday. They spoke to a full house here in the evening. Part of the program consisted in showing quite a collection of slide pictures taken from over the county and other parts of the state. Miss Beckan told of the new ways in using the wheat substitutes. She will meet with the club here in about four weeks.

A dance was given at the home of Ben Richardson Saturday night.

NEWS ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Switchboard Moved

The local switchboard has been moved from the drug store to the room in the postoffice building formerly occupied by the jewelry store. The local lines are connected up and the long distance division is also changed. Miss Ica Derthick has been employed by the Maupin patrons to operate the board.
