The regular monthly meeting of the Commercial Club was held at the Lewis hall Saturday evening.

Among many interesting things discussed was the matter of the road on Maupin hill, and it was voted unanimously in favor of a new grade on the hill. The matter of telephone line was also discussed pro and con and it was finally decided that we would go to Maupin, and a committee consisting of E. A. Hartman, Doc Wright and Jack Kelly, was appointed to investigate matters. A special meeting of the club will be called as soon as they get the necessary information.

The stockmen of this section have been branding and dehorning cattle the past week. Saturday they met at G. E. Woods, Monday at B. L. Foreman's and J. I. West.

N. G. Hedin is having his saw mill moved down to the lower setting near the mouth of the gulch and will have it set up at once and will soon be sawing again. He reports 125,000 feet of lumber on the grounds which will be used principally for construction work.

Mr. and Mrs. Bigbee visited relatives at Tygh the last of the week.

Binkie Tapp will be employed on the Gabel ranch this spring.

Considerable reseeded will have to be done in this section this spring. Worms have eaten much of the grain and some has frozen out.

Wednesday was road day here and the men worked the road
