

Supplement to The Maupin Times

Vol. 4, No. 25, Maupin, Oregon, Friday, April 5, 1918

Wamic News

March 31

Grant Ledford had a run-a-way while plowing in his field and was in town Monday to get his plow repaired. Mrs. Ledford accompanied him to town.

Parties were here Monday getting a load of lumber for C. Couley of Tygh.

This place has received earlier mail service the past week. Jimmie Johnson has changed the wagon for the auto and is now able to do the drying of the car.

While Brenton Slusher was descending the grade on the other side of Tygh with a big road engine on his way to Maupin and in passing Jamie Abbott of Wapinitia the windshield of the latter's car was broken.

Andy Bails went to The Dalles Monday taking his sister, Mrs. Laura Kennedy who went on to Hood River where she will visit relatives.

Charley Lake came from Portland Thursday to spend Easter with home folks.

Erma and Alma Driver came out from The Dalles Friday spending a few days at their home.

Mrs. Georgia Norvel and Mrs. Myrtle Swift were Tygh visitors Friday.

C. T. Bonney, A. R. Chase, L. J. Allen and Esie Morgan were here Friday night.

Mrs. J. R. Woodcock and Mrs. Ethel Duncan arrived Saturday from a two weeks' stay in Portland.

One of the most charming events of the season was the four act drama given by the school under the able management of Prof. Morley. "Playing Fair" was a good play and well acted. The Woodcock orchestra furnished music. Two patriotic pieces were numbers that thrilled the audience. The attendance gave a good door receipt which will go to the aid of the school work. Dancing followed in the hall below.

Rev. G. E. Woods of Wapinitia preached an Easter sermon in the church here today. Mrs. Woods accompanied him here.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Flinn and family were over from Juniper Sunday attending services.

A boy baby was born the 28th to Mr. and Mrs. James McCowan.

Miss Hilda Lake came up from Portland Monday, and after spending the week at home left Saturday for Davenport, Wn., where she has accepted a position in the county superintendent's office of her brother-in-law, J. A. Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Crabtree were over from Juniper today.

Guy Harvey was up from Lick Skillet today.

J. L. Maddion of Mutton Mountain was here Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Davidson and Mrs. Elia Louisignol were guests at the A. J. Swift home today

Shaniko

Messrs Bonney, Allen, Chase and Morgan visited the school Friday morning and lectured on Industrial Club work.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hoech were visitors in The Dalles Friday to Sunday.

An Easter program was given at the school house Sunday morning.

W. W. Snodgrass returned from the Valley and brought back twelve head of yearling cattle for his homestead.

Mr. Hammond gave Easter pictures here Monday night.

Alouze Morgan arrived last week from Kentucky and will work for J. E. Hinton on the Imerial ranch. Mrs. Keiger returned from an extended visit at Dayton and other Washington points.

Bert Salnavy has moved from Antelope to the Sumpner house in Shaniko.

A. J. Holt made a business trip to Wamic Monday.

Mrs. Fenton and daughter Genevieve spent Easter in Portland.

Miss Bechen and Mr. Upton spoke at the school house Friday night on gardening and poultry. Mr. and Mrs. Esping moved to their homestead last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson moved to their homestead Monday.

J. W. Hoech, local chairman of the Third Liberty Loan attended the county meeting in The Dalles Saturday night and is prepared to instruct his committee, W. Bolton and John McLennan of Antelope and Wm. Rees and Thomas Gavin of Shaniko. The drive begins April 6th and continues for three weeks.

Walter Ledford of Wamic has been sent to the Moody McReach as a government trapper. Mr. Ledford passed through here today with a trapper outfit consisting of Government Sure Death capsular traps and fire arms, etc. Such services will be appreciated by the stockmen.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wheeler were visiting in The Dalles last week.

J. F. Hood has returned from a combined business and pleasure trip to The Dalles and Walla, Walla. Mr. Hood has repainted the interior of the Lake store and is preparing to open the 15th with a new line of general merchandise.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Patrick came in from Ridgeway Monday bringing their daughter, Mrs. Chas. Stillwell and infant son to take the train for their home in Washington.