MAUPIN SOUTHERN WASCO COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, JUNE 7, 1918

THE YEAR $1.50

MAUPIN "OVER THE TOP"

The magnificent work in Maupin and vicinity during the Second Red Cross War Fund Drive, just closed, speaks well for loyalty, ability and enthusiasm for this worthy cause. The results of the drive are as follows:

Subscriptions	$ 747.95
Proceeds from dance, supper and sales	355.17
Total receipts	$1103.12
Expenditures
Cash paid to Shattuck Bros for hall rent for dance after school show	10.10
Net proceed	$1103.12

The quota for Maupin was $800 making us over the top with $303.12 We wish to take this means of thanking the band, G. L. Harphams and all who donated and helped in making this excellent showing.

Red Cross Committee.

down on the way.

Work has commenced on the three telephone lines in this vicinity and in a few days we will be saying 'Hello Maupin'.

Wamic

June 4.

Geo. Crawford is the latest one here to buy a car, having purchased a Ford while in The Dalles recently and is the first one here to have the new wire wheels.

In our announcement last week of the marriage of Wilbur Mulvaney and Miss Thelma Woodcock we made a mistake in the names. It was Mr. Mulvaney's younger brother Sid, who is the happy man. Mr. and Mrs. Mulvaney arrived Monday from The Dalles and are receiving the congratulations of their many friends here.

Bill End arrived Monday from Portland visiting his mother and brothers here.

A. A. Bonney and children were here from Tygh Monday.

Mrs. A. E. Lake went to The Dalles Wednesday, attending the Red Cross meeting. She returned Friday.

About two-thirds of the entire neighborhood went to The Dalles Thursday to attend the big circus.

No memorial services were held here on Decoration day, though many persons visited the cemeteries, placing beautiful bouquets of flowers on the graves of loved ones who are silently sleeping.

Mrs. Hattie Johnson and little son Harold, who spent two weeks with relatives here, left Wednesday for Toppenish, Wn.

Mrs. Nancy Sanford was very ill a few days but is much improved now. Mrs. Annie Gilmore arrived Friday from Cresswell.

The Southern Wasco county Fair association held its annual meeting at the Odd Fellows' hall in Tygh Saturday afternoon, electing officers and transacting other business. A. A. Bonney was re-elected president and J. T. Harper vice president. Both are of Tygh Valley. F. A. Morrow of Wamic was re-elected secretary-treasurer. The following were elected directors: Solomon W. Hauser, James Brown, Sam A. Bennett, Tygh Valley; James E. Kennedy, Mrs. Rachel A. Driver, Wamic, and W. E. Hunt, Maupin. Among those who went to the fair meeting from here are J. E. and Lee Kennedy, Guy and D. A. Harvey and Mr. and Mrs. Mack Palunteeer.

Andy Bailes and his mother, Mrs. Mary Beaty, went to Sherar Monday to meet the latter's sister. Mrs. Laura Lawson and two daughters, the Misses Verna and Laura from Fossil; Mrs. Lawson is a delegate to the Baptist conference to be held at Smock.

The Baptist denomination will hold their annual conference at Smock, beginning Wednesday and continuing over Sunday. Many delegates from various parts of the state will be there. A basket dinner will be served Sunday.

Exie Morgan arrived from The Dalles Monday.

Mrs. Ella Steers and Mrs. Dolie Kistner came up from Tygh Monday, bringing Mrs. Sophia Kistner, who is a guest at the C. E. Pratt home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. McCorkle, Mrs. Matie Patison and Miss Crystal Pratt went to The Dalles Friday to witness the commencement exercises at the high school, Miss Dorothy McCorkle being one of the graduates. She accompanied her parents home.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Farlow and little daughter were here from Smock Sunday.

Terry Jones of Smock went to Portland Tuesday, enlisting in the navy. He returned Thursday.

Pine Grove

The Wapinitia Plains Commercial Club will conduct a celebration on the 4th of July in a Grove to be decided upon soon. Perhaps the Kelly grove or Abbott grove. The usual patriotic features will be had including the races, contests, games, etc. The Maupin and Wapinitia and Pine Grove basket ball teams will participate in the games of the day. Band and greased pole with all the frills and fine fellows etc. Corrected notice given next issue.

Water now flows out over the plains twelve miles to the L. C. Henneghan ranch.

The company is maintaining several crews to hold and strengthen the banks in places out on the land.

H. N. Dodge and crew are surveying the Snodgrass and Morris lateral for immediate construction.

NEWS ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Lumber

From the Interior Warehouse there is still some left. For prices see Mr. Peter Kilburg at the Maupin Warehouse.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Jory were here last week from Enterprise and visited several days on their way to Salem and Seattle. They expect to return about the fifteenth and enter the firm of Jory's.

Local merchants this week returned their flour in stock and no more will be sold until the 1st of July.

Porches are being constructed this week on the front and rear of the parsonage. This will add immensely to the comfort and convenience of that residence.

Mrs. Lillian Morrison and little daughter are here from Seattle the guests of her mother, Mrs. L. C. Wilhelm.

THIRTY BOYS GO JUNE 24

Of the thirty Wasco county men to be called the 24th of this month the following are from this end of the county: James M. Walker, Henry E. Rooper, Antelope; Frank P. Wagner, Erb Kisor, Shaniko; Thomas Collins, James E. Smith, Tygh; George E. Cunningham, Maupin; Lewis Baker, Warm Springs; Joseph Xavier, Chester Bargeholt, George Heilmeyer, Terry C. Jones, Wamic; Tom Keo, Sinnasho.

While in Portland the first of the week a Times representative called on Miss Helen Locke and found her looking the best we have ever seen her. Although confined to her bed yet, a series of simple home treatment and medicine is bringing her back to health. Harold Locke was planning to enlist in the navy last Monday. We were also entertained at the E. Shepherd and A. C. Moad homes.

The razing of the old warehouse is about completed.
