Smock Items

Frank Felch made a trip to Maupin Saturday.

Rev. Larson of Gateway preached at the church Saturday evening and Sunday.

While in the mountains last week Orrin Farlow killed a bear. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Farlow and Miss Helen made a trip to Orrin's camp for some bear meat.

Albert Hill was quite sick last week with quinary. Dr. Jackson of Dufur came Monday and lanced the gathering.

Miss Ida Duncan who carries the rural mail between Wamic and Smock is probably the youngest mail carrier in the state. She knows her business though and is worthy of praise.

Mrs. Morrison and babe Edith made a short visit on Smock the first of the week.

Blaine Disbrow made a trip to the snow-line of Mt. Hood last week to take his brother Edward some supplies. After searching for several miles he found a couple pair of boots toasting in front of a camp fire. Investigation brought to view the faces of John Conroy and Edward Disbrow from behind books within their tent. — And the sheep were grazing on the hillside below.

Mrs. Sarah Darnall and two daughters of Dufur are here for a few days' visit with relatives.

VIRTUALLY ON CASH BASIS

The following is the heading of the first article in a recent number of the Publishers' Auxiliary:

War Board's order reduces circulation; requires weekly papers to cut circulations 15 per cent Sept. 15; rates raised and all dead heads and delinquents cut off.

In view of the above we will be obliged to strike from our list a number of names, so if you are in arrears and want the Times after Sept. 15, call or drop us a line. However, we believe that if the majority of lists were paid up as well as ours, there would be no occasion for such a ruling. Less than 16 per cent of our subscribers and exchanges are not arranged for in advance, and we will not conceed to call any of these 'dead heads.'
