Wamic

Sept. 17.

Mrs. Hattie Crabtree arrived Tuesday from The Dalles, spending several days with her daughter Mrs. Mervile Swift.

Frank Wing moved his family the former part of the week to the Noble place. The children are attending school here.

There is a demand for houses here this fall. Several persons have been turned away, there being no vacant residences.

Jack Swift has moved his family from Antelope to Garibaldi, on the coast.

Frank and Percy Driver made a trip to White River Thursday to get their car batteries charged.

Miss Lucile Kennedy returned Thursday from a four months' stay in Portland.

Farlow Bros. took four loads of fat hogs to Bherar last week for shipment to Portland.

Mrs. Marion Farlow and little daughter were down from Snock Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McMurry and three children spent several days at the J. P. McMurry home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Ray and little son of ashwood were visitors at D. A. Campbell home last week, returning Saturday.

J. A. Ward has moved in the Sanford house.

More than 3 1/4 inches of rain fell here Friday night and Saturday. This is the heaviest rain recorded here since the settlement of the place.

Much damage was done to roads by the heavy rain. Tygh hill leading to The Dalles was rendered impassable by the rock built road bed at the Old Man's Rest being carried out, the rain being equal to a water spout in that canyon.

This place was without mail service Saturday on account of a slide on the Deschutes road.

Mrs. Bell Prout and granddaughter, Leone Zumwalt left Sunday for Huntington after a two weeks' visit here and on Juniper Flat.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Burlingame and little daughter Marian left Sunday for Toppenish, Wn.

Ed Chandler and family came over from Grass Valley Sunday.

Many have gone to the Fair.

The crocheted quilt made by the Ladies' Social Club has been sent to the Fair to be sold, the proceeds going to the Red Cross.

Being the 33rd anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. McCorkle's wedding, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Patison entertained them at dinner. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pratt were guests also.

White River

(too late for last week)

Mrs. Ray Tunison and children of American Falls, Idaho, are visiting relatives here this week.

School began here this week with Miss Mabel Thomas, teacher. The White River Co. thrasher completed its run Saturday night.

H. A. Mullers have moved down to the Milstead place where they will live this winter so the children can go to school.

Will Head is helping at the warehouse during the rush.

Alfred Brown returned from Sherman county last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Coberth moved to their ranch above Tygh last Wednesday.

Mrs. Ethel Curtis went to Portland last week to join her husband who is employed there.
