

The Last Quarter Hour

"In all wars he is the conqueror who can believe a quarter of an hour longer than his adversary that he is not beaten. I shall continue the war to the last quarter of an hour, for the last quarter of an hour will be ours."

Premier Georges Clemenceau of France.

The last quarter of an hour shall be America's.

LIBERTY BONDS will make that last quarter of an hour spell VICTORY for America.

LIBERTY BONDS will give America's guns the last word.

From the Boys

On active service with the American Expeditionary Force.

Pauline, France, August 11, '18

Dear Friend,

Your very welcome letter was received today and was sure glad to hear from you and glad to know that Maupin is still on the map.

France is a very pretty country. Everything is nice and green. It is a great country for grapes, and they are getting ripe. The roads are the best I have seen for some time. It is very warm here and rains quite often. The people are very nice. Most of them can't talk any English at all, and they sure like to see the Americans over here. But with France and all her beauty, I will take mine in the U. S. A.

Well I guess we will be back before long I hope, and when I do I am coming right back to old Maupin. So all the boys are leaving. Everything must be rather dead and I guess farm help must be pretty scarce now as all the fellows have left. The time is going pretty fast over here, but not so fast for me as I am anxious to get back home.

I have been over here about six months now; had a very good trip over. Would like take it over again. There are quite a few boys from Portland with me and I know most of them, so I am not alone. I only wish there were some of my own home town boys with me. I would not feel so lonesome, but I am going to make the best of it till I get home again. I would like to fish in the old Deschutes again.
