Our Dollars Support Our Country

A part of the money of each individual given to the Red Cross, Knights of C. Y. M. C. A., etc. and a part loaned upon Gov't. Bonds, is the big power which will help and is helping our gallant American and their allied armies to do what each patriotic American is expecting to be speedily and successfully accomplished—the crushing of German Vulturism which has threatened to ravish the world.

Americans, when you are asked to lend or to give to such a cause, remember why you are asked! Because you think another hasn't done his share won't ease your conscience if you fail in yours.

Most of this and surrounding communities and, please God, all other American communities are patriotic with their dollars as well as their lips.

This editorial is meant to encourage those who have so nobly responded to the financial calls, and to help those who might be inclined to waver, but for the stingy "dollar slacker" we join our voice with the balance of true Americans, in saying we have supreme contempt for those who refuse to lend their money aid to the boys who are facing death for us all.

Prize Crops

Wapinitia, Ore., Sept. 14th, 1918. To the public:

After the hustle and bustle of the Tygh fair is over it is interesting to note that Wapinitia Irrigation Company took first prize on general exhibit and first prize on sheaf wheat; second prize on early potatoes and field corn. Several other prizes would have been awarded to the company's booth, had the articles been entered such as pumpkins, carrots, parsnips, Kentucky Wonder beans, etc.

Mr. R. B. Driver's 28 potatoes to the hill were a surprise to many. Sunflowers like cart wheels and corn ears like saw logs seemed out of place until the water flowed out on the flat. Don't be a knocker, boost your country and tell what the possibilities are with water.

J. S. Brown raised and cut three crops of alfalfa this year and two crops of timothy. So can you.

Yours truly,
N. G. Hedlin.

Estrayed
