In applying, state age, past business experience, number of years you have lived in community, and references. Address in confidence, Kane Mfg. Co., 1628-27 L. C. Smith Bldg., Seattle, Wash.

Governor

A few of the many reasons why Governor Withycombe should be re-elected:
He is loyal, patriotically American.
He has faithfully cooperated with the President in every war time activity.
He was foremost of Governors for preparedness and has earnestly supported a vigorous prosecution of the war.
He has stood for and insisted upon a square deal for both labor and capital, industrial development of the state and suppression of I. W. W.ism.
He has for more than 20 years earnestly supported and vigorously advocated woman suffrage and prohibition and has stood for a better and cleaner state.
He did not assist in organizing the Non-Partisan League in Oregon, neither was he ever a worshipper at the shrine of Populism and other organizations of doubtful purpose and loyalty.
He has conducted his office patriotically, fairly and economically—always has placed patriotism and efficiency in the public service above politics.
He has given his earnest consideration and substantial effort in promoting the happiness and comfort of the boys in the service of their country, and, lastly,
He has a record for a sound business administration and firm and earnest in the nation's present crisis that should command the approval and support of the whole people.
Re-elect Withycombe—why experiment?

U. S. Senator

"While a great time precludes any elaboration of the various matters that may engage my endeavors," said Senator McNary at the time of his appointment to the Senatorship. "I shall advocate and enlist my efforts in behalf of National Equal Suffrage and National Prohibition, as each of these measures have been adopted by the people of the state which I am selected to represent.

I shall co-operate immediately with any movement which has for its purpose the suppression of gambling and speculation in the necessities of life to the end that the consuming public shall pay a fair profit to the producer only."
On the same day Oswald West said: "If the pledges he (Senator McNary) has made to the people are kept, and I am sure they will be, he will unquestionably be returned to the Senate at the next general election."
Senator McNary has kept his every pledge. He voted for submission of the National prohibition amendment to the legislatures of the several states. He also voted for National Equal Suffrage and has introduced a bill fixing the prices of many essential commodities. Besides he has a 100 per cent record for supporting the President's war program.
Senator McNary should be re-elected for the increased taxes he will be able to render his state and nation.

Senator McNary and other members of the Oregon delegation are on the job at Washington attending to their official duties while contented for their seats. Not a gross are actively campaigning here at home. Voters will do well to retain in Congress the men who are now faithfully representing the interests of the state and loyally standing behind the President and his possession of the war. There is no time to send new and untried men to Congress.

Honest with all, strictly upright in his every act, a man of the people and for the people, Governor Withycombe brought into the executive office of the state of Oregon a personality of strict accountability to the people not heretofore known in the state. He has given to the state of Oregon one of the best, if not the best, administration of public affairs in the history of the state. Loyal to a degree beyond question, "first in peace and first in war," ever ready to do the right thing at the right time, he has won a following among the people of Oregon that unquestionably places him first in their choice to succeed himself as chief executive of the state.—Leonard Critchfield.

For State Senator To the voters of Wasco and Hood

River counties:

My name will appear on the official ballot November 5th, as an independent candidate for State Senator from the Sixteenth Senatorial District.

The great things that are happening at this time make the differences which hitherto have separated the voters into political parties seem trivial and inconsequential. For all such old conditions there is no place now and by this time should have passed entirely out of our consideration. How small they seem when the Nation is battling for the principles on which it was established. Only the great present business really counts with us now.

There is a tremendous obligation resting upon us to put our whole weight into the scale in behalf of the Government and the civilization to which we are indebted for all we have and all we are. The immediate task of winning the war is so great and absorbing that it is entitled to our whole attention, leaving other matters to receive later consideration.

Civilization is being battered out of recognition wherever the German armies and boats reach and this greatest conflict of mankind must be fought to a righteous conclusion at all costs. The conquest of Prussianism is a grim business that must be put through to the end, however long and bitter the way, and for this purpose the unconquered spirit of a free people is getting back of our government with all they have, ready at the call.

Not only the resources of the individual, but also the resources of the State of Oregon should be conserved and placed at the disposition of the Government for the winning of the war and such legislation as will effectuate this end should be immediately enacted.
No person should be elected to any representative office at this time who is not enthusiastically loyal and who will not support the National Administration in prosecuting the war to a successful termination and so opposing a premature peace.
