Senator McNary and other members of the Oregon delegation are on the job at Washington attending to their official duties while contenders for their seats in Congress are actively campaigning here at home. Voters will do well to retain in Congress the men who are now faithfully representing the interests of the state and loyally standing behind the President and his prosecution of the war. This is no time to send new and untrained men to Congress.

Twenty head of Ramboulet ewes Batty or Lu Henneghan.

Honest with all, strictly upright in his every act, a man of the people and for the people, Governor Withycombe brought into the executive office of the state of Oregon a personality of strict account ability to the people not heretofore known in the state. He has given to the state of Oregon one of the best, if not the best, administration of public affairs in the history of the state. Loyal in a degree beyond question, "first in peace and first in war," ever ready to do the right thing at the right time, he has won a following among the people of Oregon that unquestionably places him first in their choice to succeed himself as chief executive of the state.—Labanon Criterion.

Pine Grove

Pine Grove farmers are opening the Cox-Endersby post road this week. This needed road will add much to the traveling convenience of the upper flat as well as make the long sought rural route possible and practical.

Leonard Weberg who returned from O. A. C. is working for Gedin Lumber Co.

Ed Mays' herders rounded up 23 more of the stray band. A good many yet remain lost as prey for coyotes and bears.

The frosts have been very heavy of late. The pumpkin and melon vines do not seem damaged as yet

Sam Brown is installing a 5000 gallon concrete reservoir and water system from the canal to his new buildings.

Alice Weberg and Agnes Walters are home from Dufur high school.

Irma Smith and Vera Bronner returned to The Dalles although the school is still closed.

Mrs. W. B. Keen went to Portland to nurse her son and daughter-in-law reported severely ill with influenza.

W. B. Keen is lathing and plastering his house.

Frank McCoy brought out about 50 head of fine young stock from The Dalles to feed on shares.

Fischer is hauling wood and alfalfa hay from this section lately

Mr. Lindley returned for a few days to his homestead. He reports that someone has burglarized his cabin since he left.

The president of the United States has made a call for the largest budget in the history of the world for the allied benevo-lences, nationally recognized as useful and needed factors in the present war crisis. He has set November 11th for the opening date of the drive. As chairman of Wapinitia precinct for said campaign I urge the public to make their contributions to these worthy causes in the same spirit that the Oregon boys are now showing in Belgium and France. To be American today demands to be willing cheerfully to sacrifice if need be to help our army in France and our noble allies.

Wapinitia precinct quota is less than the last Red Cross drive, being only $680. Saturday, November 9th the Commercial Club urges all citizens of Wapinitia precinct to attend a mass meeting at the Wapinitia school house to start the drive. A patriotic program will be given with speakers who have a live up to the midtime message for the people.

Mrs. H. B. Jory

Teacher of Piano

Will receive a limited number of pupils. For arrangements see her at her home—the Moad house.

Governor

A few of the many reasons why Governor Withycombe should be re-elected:

He is loyally, patriotically American.

He has faithfully co-operated with the President in every war time activity.

He was foremost of Governors for preparedness and has earnestly supported a vigorous prosecution of the war.

He has stood for and insisted upon a square deal for both labor and capital, industrial development of the state and suppression of I. W. W. ism.

He has for more than 20 years earnestly supported and vigorously advocated woman suffrage and prohibition and has stood for a better and cleaner state.

He did not assist in organizing the Non-Partisan League in Oregon, neither was he ever a worshipper at the shrine of Populism and other organizations of doubtful purpose and loyalty.

He has conducted his office patriotically, fairly and economically —always has been placed patriotism and efficiency in the public service above politics.

He has given his earnest consideration and substantial effort in promoting the happiness and comfort of the boys in the service of their country, and, lastly,

He has a record for a sound business administration and loyal and earnest in the nation's present crisis that should command the approval and support of the whole people.

Re-elect Withycombe—why experiment?

U. S. Senator

"While a want of time precludes any elaboration of the various matters that may engage my endeavors," said Senator McNary at the time of his appointment to the Senatorship. "I shall advocate and enlist my efforts in behalf of National Equal Suffrage and National Prohibition, as each of these measures have been adopted by the people of the state which I am selected to represent.

I shall co-operate immediately with any movement which has for its purpose the suppression of gambling and speculation in the necessities of life to the end that the consuming public shall pay a fair profit to the producer only."

On the same day Oswald West said: "If the pledges he (Senat McNary) has made to the people are kept, and I am sure they will be, he will unquestionably be returned to the Senate at the next general election."

Senator McNary has kept his every pledge. He voted for submission of the National prohibition amendment to the Legislatures of the several states. He also voted for National Equal Suffrage and has introduced a bill fixing the prices of many essential commodities. Besides he has a 100 per cent record for supporting the President's war program.

Senator McNary should be re-elected for the increased service he will be able to render his state and nation.

For State Senator

To the voters of Wasco and Hood River counties:

My name will appear on the official ballot November 5th, as an independent candidate for State Senator from the Sixteenth Senatorial District.

The great things that are gripping us at this time make the differences which hitherto have separated the voters into political parties seem trivial and inconsequential. For all such old conditions there is no place now and by this time should have passed entirely out of our consideration.
How small they seem when the Nation is battling for the principles on which it was established.
Only this great present business really counts with us now.

There is a tremendous obligation resting upon us to put our whole weight into the scale in behalf of the Government and the civilization to which we are indebted for all we have and all we are. The immediate task of winning the war is so great and absorbing that it is entitled to our whole attention, leaving other matters to receive later consideration.

Civilization is being battered out of recognition wherever the German armies and boats reach and this greatest conflict of mankind must be fought to a righteous conclusion at all costs. The conquest of Prussianism is a grim business that must be put through to the end, however long and bitter the way, and for this purpose the unconquered spirit of a free people is getting back of our government with all they have, ready at the call.

Not only the resources of the individual, but also the resources of the State of Oregon should be conserved and placed at the disposition of the Government for the winning of the war and such legislation as will effectuate this end should be immediately enacted.

No person should be elected to any representative office at this time who is not enthusiastically loyal and who will not support the National Administration in prosecuting the war to a successful termination and in opposing a premature peace.
