was and feeling fine about every thing. You need not look for war news in my letters, for I am not writing anything pertaining to the military. I have received two letters from you. They were old ones, but believe me, they were appreciated just the same.

This is just about the rainiest country, not excepting the Willamette valley. The nights are chilly but we have plenty of good clothing, in fact we are well taken care of and we have plenty of every thing. Things look awful bright over here for the allies and I don't expect so come back to good U. S. A. for a year for we are over here now and expect to do a good job for we don't want to make this trip again.

Well don't worry about me or any of us for we are well taken care of. Well this is all for this time, will try to do better next.

Lovingly your son,

Serg. Lester E. McCorkle,
Co. K 21 Engineers

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Patison received a letter from their son, Belvie stating that he had passed the examination at the R. A. school in Seattle, and expected to start on a trip soon for service.

Sad indeed was the death of Harold Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Johnson, which occurred at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. The boy had been confined to his bed but five days, taking seriously ill from the start, typhoid pneumonia being the cause of his death. Harold was a promising youth of 16 years, extremely bright in his studies at school. He possessed unusual qualities as a coming business man. He had high characteristic attainments and his amiable disposition won the admiration and confidence of all who knew him, and his untimely death has cast a gloom of sadness over the entire community.

Mr. and Mrs. John Farlow, son Orin and baby Helen were down from Smock Sunday.

Many persons were at the A. E. Lake store Sunday having their questionnaires filled out.

Win Hull has an attack of the flu but is improving.

Mrs. Sophia Kistner is very ill at Tygh with the influenza.

D. M. Stancliff, Frank Felch and David Mayfield were down from Smock today having their questionnaires filled out.

Floyd Johnson made a trip to Maupin today to get the Spanish influenza serum to be used by Miss Pearl Thompson in vaccinating.

The funeral of Harold Johnson was held today at 1 o'clock at the Four Corners cemetery. Rev. G. E. Wood conducted the services. A. R. Chase of The Dalles paid a beautiful tribute to the memory of the one whose life had shed so much sunshine and had made happy those who surrounded him.

The many friends who followed the remains to their last resting place paid their esteem and love in tokens of beautiful flowers. The pall bearers were relatives, Ed, Willis and Tom Driver, Amos Johnson, J. E. Kennedy and Dr. W. A. Short.

Exie Morgan of The Dalles attended the funeral.

(too late for last week)

The school closed here last week fearing the flu epidemic, though no cases have developed.

Mrs. Katie Driver has been confined to her bed the past week with an attack of tonsillitis.

Mrs. Martha Dean has been sick the past two weeks.

Georgia, Vina and Sylvia Ayres came over from Maupin Friday afternoon where they are attending school. They went on to Smock.

Willie Norvel has been very ill the past week. He is improving now. Dr. Shannon made several calls during the week.

Harrison Johnson is still on the sick list with little improvement. Vernie Norval and Fred Mays went to The Dalles last week to take the war examination. Neither of them passed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McCown have moved to Tygh, occupying the A. M. Young house.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kistner were up from Tygh Thursday.

Dr. Hatfield accompanied Dr. Shannon here Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Driver returned from Warm Springs Tuesday.

Henry Miller and Stephen Wing were Dalles visitors Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Savage and son Alvin returned Thursday from Warm Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Woodcock and baby Irene were over from Maupin Saturday, remaining over night at the T. J. Swift home. They were accompanied by Mrs. H. F. Woodcock who was a guest at the A. E. Lake home.

Mrs. Lizzie Allen came over from the Agency Saturday, spending two days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Swift.

Andy Bailes made a trip to Portland last week.

Miss Edna Morrow was united in marriage recently to O. O. Rudig of Portland. Miss Morrow was a former resident of this place and her many friends are wishing
