J. O. Thompson has been transacting business in Portland the past week.

J. E. Morrow was a Dalles caller Monday, going in with F. C. Butler of Maupin.

If some of the people could find out who the scribe from Tygh is we believe they would hang "her or him" in effigy!

P. J. Olsen spent Sunday at his home at Shaniko.

The school board decided to start the school again on Monday,

December 16 provided no symptoms of the flu develop in the meantime. We have had but very few cases here and those not serious, and believe that the action of the directors in keeping the school closed has been a large factor in warding it off, for in most places where they have started school too soon they have had to close down again on account of the epidemic spreading.

Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Hauser and Harry were business callers at Kent on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Morris were Maupin callers Tuesday.

Wm. Stowell received the sad news last Wednesday of his mother's death and left at once to attend the funeral.

Mrs. Raymond Deering has been confined to her bed with the flu, but is better at this writing.

Rachel Martin Dead

Death came into this community Saturday night and removed a life that was full of ambitious thoughts, was ambitious and kind hearted to all who knew her.

Rachel A. Martin was born January 8, 1863, at Wapinitia, Oregon and died at her home in Maupin, December 7, 1918, after an illness of a few days with pneumonia. She leaves a father, mother, four sisters, many relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

Funeral services were held at the Kelly cemetery Sunday afternoon and interment made in the family lot.

Ira White Victim

(Wapinitia Special)

Word reached here Saturday morning that Ira W. White of Vancouver had passed away that morning Saturday afternoon J.

M. Powell and Mrs. Lena Blackerby of Wamic went to The Dalles and took a night train for Vancouver. Monday night Mr. Powell and Clyde Finu brought the body to Maupin and on Tuesday a 11 o'clock he was laid to rest in the Kelly cemetery beside his father, Mr. White with the rest of his family had been down some time with Spanish influenza and pneumonia developed and claimed him for its victim in a few days.

Ira W. White was born November 23, 1885 in Grant county, Oregon, and with his parents came here when two years old, where he has lived until a few years ago. In 1904 he was married to Miss Vesta Parker, and to this union two sons were born who with his wife survive. He also leaves a brother, Clarence White of California and two sisters, Mrs. Delta Powell of this place and Mrs. Laura Parker of Sanger, Cal., besides a host of other relatives and friends to mourn his untimely death. But we "sorrow not as those who have no hope," for Ira was converted when just a young man and has lived a faithful Christian ever since and we feel as though he had just moved over.
