THE YEAR $1.50

SENT IN BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS

Owing to fire my office is under going repairs and will not be open for business until about the 20th of the present month, farther notice will later appear in this paper. Portland Painless Dentist, W. T. Slatten, D. D. S., Prop.

Wamic

Dec. 29.
Corporal Ray Sharp arrived from Camp Lewis, Wn., a week ago Tuesday, spending the Christmas holidays with his mother and sister. He returned Friday.

Rev. G. E. Wood organized a Sunday School here last Sunday, assisted by a number of patrons who are deeply interested in Sunday School work. The minister was chosen superintendent, Prof. J. R. Ward, assistant superintendent; Vernon Norvel, secretary; Mrs. Wood, treasurer; Miss Emma Driver, librarian; Mrs. D. E. Miller, organist. The Sunday School meets at 10 o'clock in the morning. There was a good attendance today.

The snow which fell here a week ago Wednesday did not remain long only in the low places. Much of this melted Wednesday when a Chinook wind swept here. The sun has been in hiding here the past week, only showing his face for a short time Friday and shining brightly today.

Emmit Zumwalt has resumed driving stage to Sherar, Housty Johnson having run the stage the past month.

Harrison Johnson was taken very ill Christmas day with little improvement. Mr. Johnson suffered a partial stroke of paralysis a year ago on the same day.

Several of the young people from here attended the dance at Maupin Christmas night. A number of persons went from Tygh.

Belvie Patison arrived Monday from Camp Lewis spending Christmas with his parents. He returned Friday.

Miss M. K. Compton went to Portland Thursday.

Playing basket ball in the hall has been amusement for the school children since the closing of school.

Skating on the ice has been amusement for the young people the past week. A party went to the Johnnie Mayfield place Tuesday night where a frozen pond was employed.

Joe Chastain took a wagon load of youngsters to the Wilbur Wing place Friday night where a huge pond offered ample ice for fine skating.

Frank Magill is able to resume driving the rural stage after a siege of the flu.

Eating Christmas dinners with invited friends was indulged in Christmas where turkey, chicken, goose and cranberry sauce adorned the tables.

J. E. Kennedy went to Portland week before last where he is taking medical treatment.

Guy Harvey took Mrs. Harvey and baby to Maupin a week ago Saturday where they took the train for Hood River.

Little Carmel Woodcock was the recipient of a pleasing surprise Christmas when Miss Crystal and Mrs. Julia Pratt prepared a Christmas tree laden with gifts from her school mates and other friends which was carried to her home and placed in the room where she was confined to her bed.

Prof. J. R. Ward who made the Christmas drive for the Red Cross enrolled 157 names.

Christmas evening Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Pratt received a letter from their son Carl from whom they had not heard for nearly two months, saying he was well and anticipated returning home soon. Mr. Pratt participated in the last battle of the war which accounts for his long delay in writing. He heard the last gun fired and heard the glad news of the signing of peace.

Mrs. Annie Pratt received a letter from Mrs. Annie Gilmore telling of her former teacher here, Mrs. Ida Phillips, being down with the flu. Mrs. Phillips who was Miss Ida Gilmore, taught here many years ago when a log house was the kind that the children received their schooling in.

Mrs. Howard Blackerby returned from Vancouver a week ago Monday accompanied by her sister Mrs. White and two small sons who will remain till spring.

Allie Pratt came out from The Dalles Monday and spent Christmas with his home folks.

Konrad Hauser came up from Tygh Thursday and is a guest of Housty Johnson.

The cold spell of last week reached a temperature of ten degrees above.

Harvey Martin was here from Tygh Tuesday.

Little Carmel Woodcock has so far recovered as to be able to sit up in a chair today. She has been confined to her bed three weeks.

Wapinitia Items

School commenced again Monday after a week's vacation. The teacher, Mrs. Callie Bigbee returned from Portland Monday morning.

Dr. Shannon was called Tuesday to see Veva Bronner who is quite sick. She came home from The Dalles last Tuesday to spend the vacation.

Irma Smith returned to The Dalles Monday.

Alice Weburg came home from Dufur this week, the schools there being closed on account of the flu.

Tommy Kingsley came out from the mountains last week where he is spending the winter trapping. He reports some fine catches of coyotes and Martins this winter.

Frank Batty arrived home from The Dalles Thursday. He reported Mrs. Batty much improved.

Mrs. Sharp of Wamic has been visiting her son Walter of this place.

A dance was given at the home of Oswald Bronner last Friday night. A large crowd was present.

The Sunday school here elected officers Sunday for the coming year, Lincoln Hartman, Superintendent; Josie O'Brien, secretary; Vivian Barzee, librarian; Mrs. Celia Brittain, organist.

Ruby Hardy who has been visiting her sister Daisy returned to her home in Salem.

Ruby Wilson came over from Wamic last week, her school there being shut down again.

Chester Brittain writes from Camp Mead to his wife here that he spent Christmas at Camp Lee, Virginia, and while there saw Clyde Oliver, Elmer Dahl, John Chastain, Raymond Doering and Harry Brown, all from this section of the country. He says they are all hoping to be home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Hedin and daughter Nova left today, Thursday, for a ten days' visit.

This section is still in the grip of the cold wave which struck here some ten days ago. The mercury hovers around the zero point every night. The ice is almost six inches deep on the ponds and creek. The roads are getting good again.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Maynard were Maupin visitors Wednesday.

Herbert Lewis writes to home folks here that he expects to be mustered out of service in about three weeks.

White River

(last week)

Word has been received here that Ed Graham, formerly of this place, died at Kansas City on his way home to North Carolina.

Thad Upton, formerly of White River, died in North Carolina.

A ten pound boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hardin Wednesday the 18th.

Joe Muller went to Salem to visit relatives. Miss Thomas accompanied him as far as Portland to spend Xmas with her parents.

NEWS ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

The millinery display window of Mrs. R. C. Jory had contained an article of head dress the past week which has caused the men as well as women to stand and gaze. The subject is the metallic hat of a private German warrior.

Farms Sold

Two important real estate changes took place here this week. John McCorkle purchased the 240 acre farm of J. S. Fraley at $50. Mr. Fraley and family will move in the spring to Tygh Ridge. Dee Talcott bought the E. Metz place consisting of 240 acres Tuesday.

The continued cold weather has created ice at the electric power plant on White river and a force of men is employed heading it off from the intake.

Yesterday morning's down passenger ran into a land slide just this side of tunnel two and was derailed. The afternoon train arrived on the O. T. track.

The message came by telephone that the Albert hotel in The Dalles was destroyed by fire yesterday morning at 5 o'clock. Particulars later.

The masquerade was well attended, many coming from the various surrounding sections. The costumes were handsome. The two young ladies disguised as soldiers were very popular. But Orrin Farlow thinks his lady a master on the floor. F. C. Butler was the most spry old man there.
