LOCAL BUSINESS MAN PASSES

Raymond Cordes Jory was the oldest son of Mrs. Emily F. and the late Prof. T. C. Jory of the Willamette University, and was born in Salem, Oregon, May 14, 1888, and died in Maupin, Oregon January 6th, 1919, aged 30 years, 7 months, 24 days.

He was educated in Salem and vicinity and received his diploma from the Capital Business College in December, 1908. In January following he accepted his first position as bookkeeper for Van Duyen & Adams of Tygh Valley, which position he held until the firm changed hands.

In October, 1909 he was married to Miss Fern Muir, who with two little sons, Melvin aged 8 years and Raymond aged 6 years survive.

In August, 1910, Mr. Jory accepted a position as bookkeeper and general manager of the Pendleton Woolen Mills, remaining there for over five years when his physicians ordered a complete rest to recuperate his health. With his family he went to Silver City, New Mexico, returning to Maupin, March 3rd, 1918, and the following month opened a general merchandise store. The latter part of November he was taken ill with Spanish influenza which hastened his death.

Besides his faithful wife and two little boys he leaves his mother, Mrs. Emily F. Jory, a sister Constance Jory of Salem, Oregon, a brother, H. B. Jory of Maupin and many friends to mourn his loss.

Raymond, as he was familiarly called, was of a cheerful disposition, always making the best of every situation. He had keen business ability and his integrity won for their business a liberal

Mrs. Emily F. Jory,
Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Jory.

At the time of the Albert hotel fire last Thursday morning the Optometrist office also suffered severely, destroying the one edition almost ready for distribution and making a removal of the fixtures to new quarters necessary before operations can be resumed. So if you are a paid in advance subscriber of the Optometrist don't blame the editor for missing a couple editions. He is doing the best he can. If not send your check. It will be appreciated.

A. Crabtree returned Tuesday from a week's visit in The Dalles.
