MAUPIN SOUTHERN WASCO COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1919

THE YEAR $1.50

Street Work Delayed

The street improvement commenced last Friday was making good progress and had not the snow and rain stopped the work would be about completed as far as grading to a level is concerned. Considerable of the water main had to be changed. H. R. Kaiser handed most of the plumbing. Others on the work were O. B. and J. W. Derthick, John and Dave Donaldson, Mike and Frank Creager, Tom Muir, Ira Kistner, Laco DeCamp, Louis Derthick and Ben Cook, the latter is also making a cross-walk between the Jory and Staats mercantile houses.

The ground hog certainly saw his shadow here Sunday, as the sun rose bright and clear and remained so all day, and the old saying that there will be six weeks more winter seems likely to be true, or at least has started out that way, as about three inches of snow fell Monday night, and Tuesday night six inches more, but the Chinook has struck and it

Fralely Shop Sold

'Blacky' James who has had the management of the blacksmith shop of the Maupin Garage, and Blacksmithing, owned by Fraley & Vanderpool, with Ray Aubrey have formed partnership and purchased the blacksmith tools and equipment. The deal was made Thursday morning. The young men have since been busy moving their outfit to the location formerly occupied by A. F. Martin, having leased the same. They expect to be ready for business Monday.

Effective

In order to avoid danger from 'flu' infection from the crowds which collect in the postoffice each day while the mail is being distributed, the postmaster and telephone operators hit upon the scheme of doing their daily disinfecting at this particular time, and their method of using the disinfectant is a novel one, that of putting formaldehyde in a shallow vessel on a hot stove. Most of the germs are either killed or driven from the room and most of the occupants of the room as well.—Dufur Dispatch.

district fumigated and cleaned their school house the first of the week, and it's reported that school will reopen there in the near future, as the flu has disappeared from that section.

Mrs. Cyr came up from Maupin Monday and remained here until Wednesday looking after business.

Word was received from Mrs. V. B. Tapp this week saying that they had all had the flu, but were all able to be up again.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Mayfield returned home the first of the week after a week's stay on Smock.

Mack Hollman returned home from Maupin last evening, where he has been looking after business interests for several days.

NEWS ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Loop Highway

The following is an excerpt of a letter received by O. B. Derthick in regard to our most direct route to Portland in the interest of which N. G. Hedin is working:

The State Highway Commission will hold a public hearing in Portland February 8th in regard to the Hood River around Mt. Hood to Government Camp Highway Loop. They propose to build it this season. In order to be of service to Central Oregon travel it is absolutely necessary to build a missing link from Wasco County Plains to this loop highway so that travel may go direct to Portland over the Government camp route instead of going north fifty miles further in reaching Portland.

Estel Stovall has had considerable misfortune for one boy the past few months. After suffering a broken arm early in the fall, he had the flu a short time ago. While out playing Monday he fell on a rock in such manner as to break the previously afflicted arm in the same place.

Fralely & Vanderpool are preparing to renovate and coil the interior of their building formerly occupied by the blacksmithing department. E. J. Styer has rented the building and will take possession about March 1st. Job Crabtree has the contract for reflooring and completing the building.

George Cunningham received his discharge from Camp Lewis and arrived home January 23. He then enjoyed the mumps a week before getting out to see his friends. George is quite well acquainted with his little son, but thinks he would be less expensive when it comes time for presents had he arrived the day previous.

On the Job

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Cyr are here from Wapinitia and entering enthusiastically in their newly acquired business, the former Harpham confectionery. An introduction by us is unnecessary, as they are quite well and favorably known already. Mr. Cyr is an active member of the Gabel & Cyr orchestra, which has furnished music here for numerous occasions. A hearty welcome is extended to them by the business circle of Maupin. As opportunity permits with continuance of regular routine, they are renovating, painting, etc., which will when completed give the place a new and attractive appearance.

The new stock room of the Maupin Garage is completed and adds much to the appearance and will give much better display for their line of stock.

When attempting to loosen a bench by an under strike with a sledge hammer yesterday morning Mr. James slipped and the hammer dealt him a severe blow on the nose.

Snow fell Monday night and has been quite wintery since. Three or four inches fell yesterday and remains.

W. H. Staats is a business visitor in Portland this week.
