MAUPIN SOUTHERN WASCO COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1919

THE YEAR $1.50

That's what Hood's gang said last Sunday when William's bunch won the dinner by a large margin. James still holds high gun, getting 17 out of 20. The race for second place was very exciting as the four who tied were fighting from the start to the finish. They all came out abreast with 14 to their credit. The contestants were Hood, Williams, Hennehan and Fischer. Styer, Shannon, Shattuck, Fleming and Anderson pulled a novelty shoot, the object being to see who could miss the most, Fleming winning easily. Mr. W. H. Veatch came out from Portland to give a few pointers to the club. He sure broke them right now. Mr. Veatch is an expert shot and a royal good fellow and his visit was sorely appreciated by the club as well as by the spectators. Next shoot will be on Mar. 1. The contest will be for blood.

Wamic News

Feb. 24

George and Fred Miller entertained a number of their young friends with cards at their home Thursday night.

Mrs. F. A. Morrow invited the W. A. Bernhagen and Vard Norval families to dine with her a week ago Thursday in honor of Mr. Morrow's birth anniversary.

Following the literary program Friday night an old fashioned spelling match was pulled off which proved very interesting to both old and young. Many of the older people enjoyed the participation in the contest and a number of them showed rare ability in good spelling.

Mike Kennedy was congned to his bed several days last week with an attack of lagrippe. Mrs. Kennedy was down the week before with it. Some persons tried to think the disease was influenza which has taken so many lives, but Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy were sure it was only the old fashioned gripe they have had so many times in the past years.

Clyde Finn came over from Juniper Thursday after Mrs. Celia Brittain and Rev. G. E. Wood and family. Mr. and Mrs. Wood returned Saturday accompanied by David Sharpe, wife and baby who remained their guests over night.

Len and Miss Ruby Wilson were over night guests at the Wood hotel Friday night. They attended the literary society.

Mrs. W. E. Woodcock who had a relapse last week is able to sit up some now.

A dance was given at the Henn House Hall Saturday night. A basket lunch was served.

Washington's birthday anniversary was observed at the school Friday afternoon with a short literary program.

Mrs. Ida McCoy and Ellis Doughton of Juniper Flat attended the dance here Saturday night.

Housty Johnson was a visitor at the K. L. Hauser home Sunday. The Stockmen's meeting was postponed from last Saturday to next Saturday on account of Forest Superintendent Gerard not being able to attend.

Rehersals for the coming school play have been held the past week.

Mrs. Annie Remington arrived Saturday from Rye Valley, coming by way of Mikalo, where she had employment for several weeks. She is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Magill.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Eubanks were visitors from Juniper Flat Saturday over night at the John Eubanks home.

Rev. Samples of Gateway will hold protracted meetings here this week, commencing tonight. He has been holding meetings on Smock the past week.

Mrs. Abbie McCorkle died at the home of her son Phillip on Happy Ridge today. Grandma McCorkle as she was well known, has been a long resident of Tygh Valley. She lived here a few years when she first came from the east forty years or more ago. She leaves a number of relatives in Tygh and surrounding communities. Mrs. McCorkle won many warm friends with her gentle disposition, who regret her sudden demise. Paralysis was the cause of her death.

Eugene Pratt felled a large Pine tree on his vacant lot here today. The tree was one of the few remaining land marks of early settlement of this place, which was once a grove of pine and other trees before the town was laid out. G. E. Wood and Vernon Norval tried the speed of their new wood saw in sawing up the trunk of the tree.

A crew are workfog on the grade this week.

Tygh Valley

The road work started up Monday morning with a crew of three teams and nine men.

E. C. Fitzpatrick has moved his cattle he has been feeding on White river up to Tygh and expects to dehorn and brand soon.

Tom Swift came very near drowning one of his horses one day this week while crossing Tygh Creek just below the new bridge. He got into some quick sand and one of the horses got down and he had to hold its head out of the water while he sent for help to get it out.

Mr. Stillwell has been quite busy this week repairing the flume to the old mill site here and has the water running now and started a feed mill. Anyone wishing any feed ground call on Bill.

Mrs. Weisbeck left Wednesday for Portland, is going to the hospital.

Mrs. A. A. Bonney is sick this week with a very bad cold.

The weather is still changeable. Some days like spring and some cold and blustry.

Mrs. Oliver who has been sick the most of the winter is still about the same. Her mother, Mrs. Shannon, and sister, Mrs. Osborn are with here.

J. T. Harper returned Sunday from his trip.

Tom Swift and G. W. Foster hauled a load of hay from Harth's ranch on lower Tygh to Foster's place on Upper Tygh one day last week. They reported the roads very muddy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Foster from Portland are visiting their son George Foster.

A. A. Bonney returned home Wednesday evening from Salem.

The Mays brothers, Grant and Pierce, are business visitors here this week. Their foreman, A. J. Black, is leaving their service the first of March. Mr. Sloan from Dufur is taking Mr. Black's place.

Solomon Hauser returned home Wednesday evening after a short vacation.

This neighborhood was made very sad by the death of Mrs. Wm McCorkle better known as Grandma McCorkle Monday, having only been sick a few days. She was visiting her son Phillip at the time of her death which was caused by paralysis. She was 77 years and 9 months old. The funeral was held at Tygh in I. O. O. F. hall at 11:30 Wednesday and interment in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. The McCorkles have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire neighborhood in the loss of their beloved mother.

Dr. Shannon and family were visiting Wednesday evening at the Dahl ranch.

Mrs. Cyr was sick this week but much improved.

Mrs. Morgensen left Saturday night to be at the bedside of her mother who is very low.

Called Off

To the generous citizens of Wasco county:

Our attention has been called to the fact that on February 24th a drive was to have been inaugurated for the purpose of raising within the county $3100 for the Armenian and Syrian Relief Fund. In the various drives held in the past Wasco county has been very liberal and has over subscribed. In the Second Red Cross War Fund drive, Wasco county accepted a quota of $25000, which was proportionately a much larger quota than assumed by other counties. It was absolutely impossible to plan to raise just this amount. The drive was over subscribed. The $25000 was remitted to New York and the balance was kept as a fund in Wasco county.

We now propose to draw a draft for $3100 on Geo. W. Johnson, treasurer, and in favor of Mrs. Lulu D. Crandall, county chairman for Armenian and Syrian Relief, and thus obviate the necessity of another drive in Wasco county at this time. We feel that this should meet the approval of all. If, however, any of the subscribers to this fund have good and sufficient reasons why this should not be done, we would ask that they kindly make them known through this paper at once.
