MAUPIN SOUTHERN WASCO COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, MAY 2 1919

THE YEAR $1.50

Look out for the Cars

The United States Railroad Administration, Safety Section has handed the Times, their March safety first bulletin which contains accounts of numerous railroad crossing accidents and so forth. It is indeed wonderful the number of people that do not heed the railroad danger signs, when approaching the railroad track, get killed and their auto all mashed up by the train.

Fortunately at Maupin we are provided with an over head crossing, otherwise we probably would have an accident occasionally at Maupin, Oregon.

We wish however to join the united effort that is being made throughout the country to awaken the people to the crossing danger and the great number of accidents that happen to automobiles in particular. To our tourist friends we wish to say "Look out for the cars" when approaching the railroad track, or the train will get you.
