Roosevelt Highway

way; the seven great coast counties comprising one-seventh of the area of the state are just as enthusiastically working to develop the irrigation projects of the Eastern Oregonians.

An apt illustration of the friendly spirit that is animating the coast counties is a rally held at Gardiner on the Umpqua river recently when settlers came by the hundreds to boost for the Roosevelt Highway bond issue. Some of those in attendance came from points miles distant in boats. More than a thousand gathered at Gardiner to hear President S. C. Pier of the Roosevelt Highway Association explain the wonderful possibilities that will be opened up by what he declared will be the most useful agricultural road and greatest scenic boulevard in the world.

The assemblage not only endorsed the highway project, but it went on record with a unanimous resolution favoring the passage of the Gallagher bill whereby the state is given authority to lend its credit to irrigation projects approved by a special commission consisting of the state superintendent of banks, the state engineer and the attorney general.

Letters and telegrams endorsing the Gallagher bill are pouring into the headquarters of the Roosevelt Highway Association at the Imperial Hotel from the chambers of commerce and other public spirited organizations all over the coast. Similar endorsements for the coast highway are reaching the association by the score from the irrigation belts of eastern, southern and central Oregon.

The two bills are of kindred importance. The Roosevelt highway if built will bring millions of home seekers to Oregon. There will not only view the unparalled scenery offered by the highway, but they will seek opportunities to invest their money and make their home in Oregon. Great stretches of land in the irrigation sections offer the best kind of chance for investments. The people of Eastern Oregon and other sections that are looking to their future development through irrigation are only too well aware that anything they do to insure the construction of the coast highway will be therefore greatly to their own interest. For this reason they have been glad to get behind the highway movement. — Harbor North Bend.

Eastern Oregon is mighty interested in the passage of the special measure known as the Irrigation Interest Guaranteed Measure, to be voted on at the coming special election to be held on June 3rd.

This bill will cost the state as a whole nothing and will open the way for immediate development of hundreds of thousands of acres of the best land in the world that is now either too swampy or too arid to produce a healthy weed.

The Pacific Coast counties are mightily interested in the passage of the measure known as the Roosevelt Highway bill, providing for the building of the north and south highway along the Pacific coast, the bonds not to be issued unless matched by a special appropriation from Congress.

This measure will not cost the state much and will greatly benefit the isolated people of the coast counties, who now have to wait until the fog settles in order to travel these roads.

Let Eastern Oregon boost for and vote for the Roosevelt highway and the support of the coast sections for in return we graciously receive the support of the coast sections for the interest Guaranteed bill. — Malheur Enterprise, Vale.

Barnsdale, Ore., April 24th
Editor Tillamook Headlight:

It seems that I must unburden myself regarding the Roosevelt highway. Namely, what it will do for this county. What the rail road did for this county is no comparison, I came here several years ago on a dinky little boat called the Elmore. What times we used to have getting our products out of the county and getting the merchandise we needed. How often we had to go without mail. Rather night-marish when we think about it. These boats are not running any more, and the railroad has everything their own way. With hard surfaced roads we can send an auto truck for freight or anything else we may need.

What will be the value of this highway to the people of Eastern Oregon? The value from a military point of view. With the enemy in possession of the coast and no means to bring troops. The people of Eastern Oregon would feel far more comfortable. It is the duty of every loyal citizen to support this measure, for the protection of our property and the coming generations. Any time is a good time to support this measure. But now is the accepted time. For the reason that we may purchase $1 worth for 50 cents. I have not space to expound the advantages derived from this measure. The disadvantages could be written with a cipher on the head of a pin.

A Good Roads Booster.
