Famous Castle of Durnstein.

The ragged towers of the castle of Durnstein, in which Richard of England was imprisoned, still rise by the Danube, and there is a Napoleonic legend that, as the French emperor rode by in his Wagram campaign, he pointed to them with horror as a reminder of a barbarous incident. Seemingly his revery was untroubled by any provision of the far harder fate in store for him.

Protecting Turkeys From Coyotes.

In certain parts of the West flocks of domestic turkeys on frontier farms are protected from attacks by coyotes by tying small bells to the necks of the gobblers. The tinkle of these bells is sufficient, in most cases, to keep the animals away, while not infrequently unprotected flocks which have wandered far from home are annihilated by the beasts.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Early Morning Exercise.

"Don't roll out of bed like a sailor," says a newspaper doctor. "Stretch the muscles and the legs and abdomen immediately after awakening. Putting on one's stockings in bed is a good way to accomplish this result and reduce flesh." Obviously, to follow these instructions, one should take the stockings to bed the night before. Most of the exercise, then, naturally will consist in finding the stockings among the bed clothes the next morning.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know.

How Phrase Originated.

The English-speaking people frequently, when they see somebody doing something they like, exclaim: "That's the ticket," meaning that it is the proper method of procedure. The real saying is "That is the etiquette," or the right and proper way of doing.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Wise Words.

"Love yoh enemies," said Uncle Eben, "but don't give 'em no chance to mark de deck or use loaded dice."

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

The Real "Butterfly."

The names for the butterfly did not originate from "flutter," but from low German and Hollandish. Over in Holland there is a butterfly that lives whenever possible on butter and milk. He is and always has been a nuisance to the Dutch wives and has always been called the "butterfliege," or butterfly.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

"Yankee Doodle."

The tune, or jingle, is very old and the author or authors were of the dim long ago. The tune under different names can be found among the peasant dances and nursery rhymes of England long before 1600. In Ireland in those days it was a jig tune; in Spain a sword dance; in Holland a song of labor and nursery rhyme; in Germany a folk song and dance; in Poland a folk song and dance.
