Optimism

"Here you are" said Prof. Stossmeister last night. "Some speckled beauties from the sparkling Deschutes," and he laid down a half dozen mountain trout on the editor's table and smiled. "Yes, these were caught the night before we left God's country where a million horsepower percolates through the mountain crags, and the jack rabbits form the largest part of the living civilization.
We wanted a little respite from the arduous duties of business mixed with a little of the warmth of Central Oregon. Most of our two week's was spent at Maupin. Some country. The railroads wind and twist through the canyons and will stop at any point to let one fish and pick you up in the same way.
Our only guest was a hero of Chateau Thierry, where the Hindenberg line was broken and started the now historic retreat of the Germans. His name is Angelos Koroles. He lives in Kelly's hotel at Maupin which is the center of the power producing section Angelos picked the Deschutes district as the most peaceful place on earth to live. He caught the fish that graced our baskets and we bow our acknowledgement to his friendly cooperation.
The roads are good in Central Oregon and the jack rabbits are plentiful. The sunshine seems to give 100 per cent. This was the biggest and longest two weeks I ever spent away from home. One must motor over the county to find out just how big little Old Oregon really is and how to enjoy the great out doors.

Wanted to rent this fall for a term of years a good wheat ranch with or without stock. I can furnish good references. Address F. R. Maupin Times.

The spirit of building seems to have hit the territory overlooking Deschutes avenue. Dr. Stovall has erected a neat tent house for slumber residence. Dr. Elwood is following the example. Dave Donaldson has completed his little cottage and moved therein. W. Talcott is adding to the building started several months ago on the rear of his lot. H. A. White has purchased the lot adjoining the Times property and grants us permission to announce he is erecting a wind-break thereon.

Have you plenty of music in your home? If not get a piano or talking machine on the easy payment plan. Maupin Drug Store.

Are you using The Times liner column when you have anything to sell or want to buy some article that your neighbor may have or wishes to dispose of? If not try a want ad in that column. We are sure that it will bring results.
