Fish Eat Other Fish.

When a codfish eats it takes an oyster in its mouth, cracks the shell, digests the meat and ejects the shell. Crabs crack the shells of their smaller neighbors and suck out the meat. This accounts for the mounds of shells which are found beneath the waves. And, as further illustrating the constant destruction going on in the ocean's depth, it is said that if a ship sinks it will be eaten by fish with the exception of its metal portions.

No one is too young or too old to be impressed with the fact that obedience is the law of life. Show its rewards and its test of discipline. When one wills to obey, he throws into gear machinery the like of which is not known anywhere else on earth.

China's Water Transportation.

On the rivers, streams or canals of China transportation and postal facilities depend on the sampans. Women, as well as men, operate them all day and the prehensile foot renders their task much easier. Every Chinese postman, lying on his boat, steers with his hands and rows with his toes. He holds the oar strongly between the great toe and the others and gives a vigorous motion to the boat by the powerful action of the leg muscles.

The longest time during which a note has remained outside the Bank of England is 111 years. It was one of £25, and it is computed that the compound interest during that long period amounted to no less than £6,000.

Is it Possible to Legislate Life and Brains?

Swift & Company is primarily an organization of men, not a collection of brick, mortar, and machinery.

Packing Plants, their equipment and usefulness are only outward symbols of the intelligence, life-long experience, and right purpose of the men who compose the organization and of those who direct it.

Will not Government direction of the packing industry, now contemplated by Congress, take over the empty husk of physical property and equipment and sacrifice the initiative, experience and devotion of these men, which is the life itself of the industry?

What legislation, what political adroitness could replace such life and brains, once driven out?

Let us send you a Swift "Dollar." It will interest you. Address Swift & Company, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Ill.

LISTEN TO THIS! SAYS CORNS LIFT RIGHT OUT NOW!

Gathering Life's Gold.

The gold of life does not lie hidden in mines; it sparkles in tiny sands all along the common path of every day. He only who gathers it bit by bit from daily duties and pleasures and opportunities and friendships will find himself the possessor of the real treasure at last.

The Unknown Quantity.

When a thing like that happens a man does not know exactly where he is or how he feels. The largeness and the smallness of the world amaze him; the mystery of life bewilders him; he is confused in the presence of the unknown quantity. How he behaves, what he says or does, depends entirely upon instincts beyond his control. This is what happened to Richard when he heard the voice of Carola.—Henry Van Dyke.

Fact and Fiction.

In novels a man nearly always marries the right woman. And he succeeds in doing so about half the time in real life.—Topeka Capital.

Education the Only Road.

Education alone can conduct us to that enjoyment which is at once best in quality and infinite in quantity.—Horace Mann.

Leather-Lunged.

"Hold on, William!" commands a voice in patent-leather shoes, running down the stairs, all pink with haste.—Pearson's Magazine.

Daily Thought.

Honest bread is very well—it's the butter that makes the temptation.—Douglas Jerrold.
