

PROMINENT WELSH TENOR COMING
Sam Lewis One of Country's Best Ballad Singers

Sam Lewis, the well known Welsh tenor, is soon to be heard here in Lyceum. He is appearing at the head of his own concert organization this season and has an exceptionally talented company of assisting artists. Mr. Lewis first gained distinction and fame through his ability as a ballad singer, but he is now as well known for his work in the operatic field. He has one of the best tenor voices of the younger generation of singers, of splendid volume and glorious in its deep, rich tones.

Miss Ruth Lavery, the Chicago violinist, Miss Irene Harrut, accompanist and soprano soloist, and Miss Amber Hopkins, reader, comprise the balance of this splendid company. Their concert will be one of the musical events of the season.
