MAUPIN SOUTHERN WASCO COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, JANUARY 23, 1920

THE YEAR $1.50

Surely Had Our Money's Worth

Was the expression of all who heard Tom Skeyhill Wednesday night at Shattuck's hall. One of the largest crowds that ever congregated in Maupin seemed spell-bound as they listened attentively for two hours to the renowned speaker who proved all he was advertised to be.

Attention

Maupin Post No. 73, American Legion will hold a meeting in the Donaldson hall, Thursday, January 29th, to elect permanent officers. All ex-service men are invited to attend. Meeting will be called at 8 p. m.

REST

Funeral services for the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson O. Winfree of Maupin were held from the Chapman parlors Tuesday afternoon.—Chronicle.

Pleasant Evening

Last Friday evening Mrs. R. S. Slusher and Mrs. H. R. Kaiser were hostess at a shower at the Slusher home in honor of Mrs. Virgil Mayhew. The reception room was festooned with red and white with cupies and bells completing the decorations. Twenty-four ladies were present. Social conversation and the solving of a puzzle verse occupied the first part of the evening, Miss Selleck winning the prize of a teapot which she presented to the bride, and Mrs. Renick the booby, an all-day-sucker, which she also presented to the bride.

A chariot decorated with red and white, laden with beautiful gifts, which was driven by Eva Slusher with Winifred Kaiser and Loraine Stoval conveying it, was presented to the bride.

A delicious lunch was enjoyed by all.

Maupin School News

The young Australian lecturer, Tom Skeyhill, visited the Maupin school Thursday and talked to the pupils. His remarks were both entertaining and instructive. Long will the young people remember this young soldier from the other side of the globe, who has lived so much in so short a time. Surely "we live not by years or figures on a dial."

The following named pupils were elected to office by the Juniper Club for the second semester: President, Mabel Cyr; first vice-president, Ida Duncan; second vice-president, Lelah Davidson; secretary-treasurer, Lewis Derthick; assistant secretary, Vina Ayres; sergeant-at arms, Leonard Farlow; critic, Mrs. A. W. Buchanan.

(last week)

Building operations are progressing rapidly in the intermediate room. The seventh and eighth grades are building bristol board houses on a scale of one-fourth inch to the foot, and computing the cost on a schedule of real prices as quoted by Mr. Renick, the Tum-A-Lum representative.

Several are out with the mumps but the school goes on. The high school is the "hardest hit," there being five sick at present.

The question of semester credits is now agitating some of the high school pupils. Mabel Cyr, Ida Duncan and Leonard Farlow, having above 90 per cent in all monthly tests, received credits without examination. Lewis Derthick was exempt in Latin, geometry and history.

There are towns built and projects developed by men of progressive spirit who have confidence in themselves and the U. S. A.

Some great man like Benjamin Franklin once said, "Ploz deep while the sluggards sleep." The young man with the hustle surely has the opportunity of his life before him now in Wasco county. Think it over.

"Vital laws effecting the prosperity of Eastern Oregon were passed. The one law concerning irrigation and drainage projects which guarantees interest on the bonds for the first five years, is alone worth the cost of the entire session.
