

THE WELSH GLEE QUARTET

THE famous Welsh Glee Quartet will bring to the Lyceum course, when they appear here in the near future, an organization of singers every member of which has been a gold medal winner in leading prize contests in America and abroad.

The Welsh are proverbial for their ability to sing, and the four men who make up this company maintain all the traditions which surround the musical ensembles of the Welsh. Not only do they put over a great ensemble program, but they are individual soloists and entertainers of splendid reputation. The monologues and musical readings of Mr. Ditcher and the songs of the London costumer by Mr. Jones are unusual features.

They will give the patrons of the Lyceum one of the finest musical entertainments heard here in years. During the past summer season the company was the opening day attraction on one of the biggest Chautauqua Circuits in the East and Canada, and their work everywhere was received with enthusiastic approval.
