

THE WELSH GLEE QUARTET

THE famous Welsh Glee Quartet will bring to the lyceum course, when they appear here in the near future, an organization of singers every member of which has been a gold medal winner in leading prize contests in America and abroad.

The Welsh are proverbial for their ability to sing, and the four men who make up this company maintain all the traditions which surround the musical annals of the Welsh. Not only do they put over a great ensemble program, but they are individual soloists and entertainers of splendid reputation. The monologues and musical readings of Mr. Bachelor and the songs of the London coster-monger by Mr. Jones are unusual features.

They will give the patrons of the lyceum one of the finest musical entertainments heard here in years. During the past summer season the company was the opening day attraction on one of the biggest Chautauqua Circuits in the East and Canada, and their work everywhere was received with enthusiastic approval.

Tygh Valley

February 28.
Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dahl spent last week in Portland, attending the auto show while there.
Mrs. Pouting was called to Goldendale last week to care for her brother who was seriously ill with pneumonia. Word has been received here since that her brother died and that Mrs. Pouting was ill with influenza.
Dr. Shannon who has been ill for some time is unable to attend to his practise yet.
Some road signs are being painted which will advertise Tygh Valley, the money being subscribed by the townspeople. Signs of old Tygh waking up.
The Crescent Garage is doing a rushing business. The owners are speculating on enlarging their car space.
Collectors for the Armenian relief fund are being well received with the exception of a few instances. One lady on being asked for a donation informed the collector that they didn't treat her son right in Europe, so she wouldn't give anything to the fund. Another citizen who pulls down a rather high salary gave twentyfive cents. Both cases mentioned are able to contribute as far as their financial condition is concerned but they show a spirit and lack of feeling that could well be done without in any state in the Union.
Judge Harper came out in the sunshine and told the boys a story the other day; we are looking for spring any time now.
Mr. and Mrs. Harvey McLain have moved down to the Fitzpatrick ranch. Mr. Ed Fitzpatrick and Mr. McLain are busy fencing, etc.
The epidemic passed up Tygh this year again. Tygh as a health resort seems to be in class 1.
Mrs. Oliver and Clyde are packing to move their belongings down to their ranch in the Valley.
Some of the boys killed a skunk in town the other day. The news of its death traveled faster than gossip ever did.
Miss Colin Muller will be employed at the Fitzpatrick ranch next week.
