Original Harmony. A traveler on a walking tour in one of the northern counties came across a solitary old man who, seated in the doorway of his cottage, was fiddling away quite regardless of such trifling conventionalities as time and tune. The traveler listened a while in amusement and then inquired casually: "When do you tune your violin?" The reply came with refreshing ingenuousness: "I don't tune it—it don't sound right if I do."

ASK FOR "DIAMOND DYES" What's Art to This Senator?

Art received a terrible wallop at the national capitol when a senator decided he wanted a private door into his office so that folks could not break in on him unannounced. Summoning workmen, he caused to be torn out some of the finest art work on the walls of the senate side and then had a door installed.

Cruso's Umbrella. Defoe, it will be remembered, makes Robinson Crusoe describe that he had seen umbrellas employed in the Brazil and that he had constructed his own umbrella in imitation of them. "I covered it with skins," he said, "the hair outward, so that it cast off the rain like a pent house and kept off the sun so effectually that I could walk out in the hottest weather with greater advantage than I could before in the coolest."

Children and Books. It does the child no harm to make the acquaintance of books which were not written for children. In a home where the great books that have inspired or amused successive generations are accessible, an active-minded child is likely at some time or other to get at them. If we want our children to fall in love with the better kind of books, let us provide them with opportunities for meeting such books without too much formality.

Education. An educated man stands, as it were, in the midst of a boundless arsenal and magazine, filled with all the weapons and engines which the skill of men has been able to devise from the earliest time; and he works accordingly, with a strength borrowed from all past ages.—Carlyle.

Valuable Japanese Plant. A plant grows in Japan which furnishes a sort of vegetable leather. It is a pretty shrub called the mitsumata, and its inner bark, after going through certain processes, is converted into a substance as tough as French kid, so transparent that one can almost see through it, and as pliable and soft as calfskin.

Object of Public School. The public school is wrongly organized when its main object is to fit for college. It should benefit the many rather than the few.—Phillips.

To Have a Clear Sweet Skin. Touch pimples, redness, roughness or itching, if any, with Cuticura Ointment, then bathe with Cuticura Soap and hot water. Rinse, dry gently and dust on a little Cuticura Talcum to leave a fascinating fragrance on skin. Everywhere 25c each.—Adv.

Ancient Bell. The rector of the village of East Haddam, in Connecticut, houses a very ancient bell, bearing the date A. D., 803. It is believed that this bell once belonged to a monastery in Spain, having been brought to the United States in some ship, as ballast.

When the Storm Breaks. Our observation is that a woman can get very tired of a husband who thinks his station in life demands more clothes than hers does.—Dallas News.
