Tygh Valley

Tygh Valley ball news: Tygh Valley played Mosier, Sunday, May 16th. Mosier put up a very poor game, but good naturedly took an 8 to 0 beating. Neither side played good ball. The Mosier boys arrived late and were in poor condition after their long trip. The game was well attended. Tygh will play The Dalles here next Sunday.

Dr. Shannon took J. T. Harper to The Dalles Hospital Monday. Mrs. Harper accompanied him. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bullis of Hoskins are taking care of the store. Mrs. Bullis was formerly Miss Jeannette Harper and well known in this vicinity. Mr. Harper is reported to be slightly improved.

Miss McKay is visiting with Dr. and Mrs. Shannon at present. Hauser & Dahl are through shearing. A Kistner's crew sheared for them.

The farmer's picnic Thursday was well attended. The day was ideal and everything was lovely except for one thing and that ought to be spelled in capital letters. Tygh Valley fair grounds is located in one of the prettiest if not the prettiest location in Wasco county, sheltered from high winds and dust, plenty of wood, water and shade, a grandstand well built and large enough to hold 500 persons, and a good ball ground—everything except one thing as said before and which began to loom up large in front of every visitor round about mid day "Where do we go to eat?" Alas, nobody could tell them. Of course every local visitor had lunch with them and tried to make it go round, but our outside visitors were too many. Let us hope next time that some attention will be paid to this part of the program. A hot dog man would have been mobbed if he had appeared on the grounds about five o'clock in the afternoon.

The picture show and dance given by the Badger Post, American Legion were both well attended. Supper was served at the hotel.

Tom Ashley of White River had the misfortune to lose his house Saturday morning. It caught fire about 9 o'clock and the flames spread so quickly that hardly anything was saved.

Dudley Weisbeck left for the mountains. He will remain there with his father who is working with the forest service.

F. P. Mays was a local visitor this last week.

Miss Grace Muir of Moro was a visitor in Tygh this week. Miss Muir formerly resided here.

Mr. and Mrs. Nickerson who have been visiting in Washington returned home Sunday.

The Creacent Garage has installed an electric lighting and power system. This garage intends to be one of the most up-to-date in the county.

The gasoline shortage is beginning to get under one's collar. Judging from John D's picture it will be impossible to squeeze much more out of him.

According to a recent visitor gasoline is 28 cents in Washington and plenty of it. At the last legislative session our brilliant assembly refused to repeal the specific gravity test law, which has become obsolete, now we are facing 40 cent gasoline and very little of that.

Which would you rather do, go to the democratic convention in San Francisco as a delegate or take a chance with Carranza?

Mr. and Mrs. Grimes have returned from California. Mr. Grimes was compelled to leave his car at Grants Pass and make the rest of the journey by train.

Tourists are beginning to show up. Several camped in Van Duyn park every night, if the mosquitoes would start to bite we would begin to think of summer.

Fishing has been very poor in Tygh and Badger streams even with high water. We suppose the fish are not as plentiful as they ought to be. There are two ways to keep fish in these streams either restock and close for two years or build a fish ladder at White River falls. We would recommend a fish ladder, first as being a more permanent source of supply, and secondly to enforce a closed season on these streams would be impossible without considerable expense in policing them.

Wamic News

Woodcock & Kennedy saw mill is making lumber now, having commenced week before last.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Richardson have moved from Seattle, Wn. to Berkeley, Cal. Mrs. Richardson was formerly Miss Eunice Luca of this place.

The families of the Mayfield's who have resided here for several years have moved to Yakima, Wn. where they have purchased land. Mrs. Annie Bird who has been critically ill is somewhat improved. Willie and Vernie Norvel were Dalles visitors last Thursday.

Fred Bichsel and family were Dalles visitors Thursday. Vernie Norvel has bought the Fred Bichsel place, paying $4000.

J. E. Kennedy made a trip to Wrentham Thursday going on to The Dalles.

Miss Lucile Kennedy returned from Portland Wednesday.

A social was given in the Smock school house Friday night. The funds received were sufficient to complete the remaining payments on their graphanola.

Clarie Zumwalt, Addie Duncan, Owen Magill and Virgil McMurry took the eighth grade examination last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Savage left Monday for Yakima where they will make their future home.

Russ Hogan, a former resident of this place lost his house located just outside the limits of Thompson addition, The Dalles, Sunday afternoon by fire. He was beating coal tar on the cook stove when it ignited. Much of the contents of the house was saved, and the fire department by use of chemicals saved the outside buildings.

A moving picture followed by a dance was given by the C. M. Plyler Co. of Grass Valley Saturday night.
