********** STATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

......... Salem.-Interest on county deposits should be placed in the general funds and not in the current expense funds, according to an opinion given by the attorney general here.

Baker.-One of the most sensational horn mountain district opened the eyes of the prospectors throughout Baker county, when large nuggets were picked up in the Belmont mine last week, according to mining officials who arrived in Baker from Greenhorn.

Salem.-The shortage of gasoline and eliminating of half of the annual license fee after July 1 have combined to reduce materially the demand for motor vehicle licenses during the past few days.

Salem .- Bonds in the sum of $116,-000 issued by Multnomah County Drainage District No. 1 arrived here recently for recording to the offices of the secretary of state. This district has issued a total of $400,000 in bonds and considerable development work is now under way.

is now flowing at the rate of nearly would the fishermen do for a place to 40,000 gallons a day, which is several thousand gallons more than the city tution. uses. The water is pure and free from every sort of harmful baccilli, according to the report of the test made by the state board of health.

Stanfield.-One of the heaviest downpours of rain for this time of the they just simply won't get out and year started Sunday night and continued until early Tuesday morning. A few ranchers had started haying, but the majority had not, and little dam-age is reported. The rainfall is most cura Talcum Powder, an exquisitely opportune, as wheat has just begun to head out and will put thousands of dollars in the wheat ranchers' pockets.

Bend.-To work against the threatened crop shortage in Deschutes county by supplying badly-needed labor to the farmers of this section, the Bend commercial club has voted to create a farm employment bureau. An effort will be made to divert the labor turnover at the local pine mills, estimated at 300 per cent, to the ranchers of the county, as a partial solution of the problem.

Salem.-That the deficiency appro priation of $250,000 authorized at last Friday's meeting of the state emergency board probably will be sufficient to insure operation of the so-called soldiers' sailors' and marines' educational aid law until next January, when funds derived from the 1920 tax will begin to reach the state treasurer. was the statement made here by Sam A. Kozer, secretary of state.

Salem .- An initiative petition providing for the complete abolishment of cigarettes in Oregon has been filed with the secretary of state, and will be referred to the attorney-general for ballot title. Under the proposed law it will be a violation to sell, keep for sale, solicit, advertise, receive orders or possess cigarettes, cigarette papers or what is generally known among smokers as "the makings." Persons violating the proposed law will be subject to both a fine and county jail sentence.

Portland.-Purchase of practically all of the Clatsop county holdings of the Hammond Lumber company by the Crown-Willamette Paper company was announced recently by R. L. Herren timber superintendent of the paper company. Although the exact purchase price was not made public, it is known to range between $1,500,000

Salem.-Receipts of the motor vehicle department of the state govern- Adv. ment for the month of May, 1920, totaled $99,696, according to a financial statement prepared by the secretary of state. Various transactions which made up the fees for the month in cluded 4277 automobile registrations 321 motorcycle registrations, 17 dealers' licenses, 195 chauffeurs' licenses 1803 automobile transfers, 71 motorcycle transfers, 102 automobile license plates, 11 motorcycle license plates, 14 dealers' plates, four chauffeur badges and 36 dealers' additional sets of license plates.

Salem.-In a signed confession reterating statements made previously to fellow convicts but the truth of which were doubted by Dr. R. Lee Steiner, until recently superintendent of the penitentiary, James Ogle, now serving a life sentence in the institution for the murder of J. N. Burgess different times of the year in both and George E. Perringer of Pendleton in Multnomah county last November, ed David Smith and Walter Bannaster inclines first one way and then the cerned. Smith and Bannaster also are played in the murders.

Lift off Corns!

Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.

With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of feet.

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No humbur!

East Indian Farmers Exploited.

Although 80 per cent of the East Indians are agriculturists, only 2 per cent of these farmers are free from debt. Every season they borrow for tilling, harvesting and for marketing, so that they always work on borrowed money. The farmer does not sell in the market, but the produce is sold by money lenders. The establishment of many industrial institutions by missionary societies in providing a practical solution to the problem.
