

Daily News Items.

COMPILED FOR YOU

Events of Noted People, Governments and Pacific Northwest, land Other Things Worth Knowing.

Automobile accidents took a toll of ten lives in Chicago and vicinity Wednesday.

Another case of bubonic plague has developed at Beaumont, Tex., it was announced there Wednesday.

A shark weighing 450 pounds was captured and killed on the bathing beach at Edgemere, N. Y., Tuesday by George Weiss, a life guard.

Wheat futures dropped 13 and 14 cents Tuesday and corn futures were the penitentiary; Jack Carney, Duluth, ganization. down 5 cents a bushel at the close of Minn., editor of "Truth" and member the grain market in Kansas City, Mo., of the party national executive com-Tuesday.

San Francisco is expected to be in- Chicago lawyer, one year in jail; Dr. augurated the first week in September, Assistant Postmaster-General year in jail; N. J. Christensen, Chi-Praeger announces.

An 8-year-old girl and two boys, aged 6 and 2, children of Charles W. Wright, were burned to death when the family home at Wrightson, Minn., was destroyed by fire.

Huteel Metzger, former army aviator, pleaded not guilty in Fargo, N. D., police court Tuesday to a charge of attempting to steal an airplane. He the penitentiary and $2000 fine; Dr. was held under $2000 ball.

Colonel William H. Johnston, who commanded the 91st division in France III., one year in jail; John Vogel, and was afterwards in command at Chicago, one year in jall. Camp Lewis, Wash., has been ordered to sail on August 5 for Antwerp, Belglum.

Total earnings of the United States ter of the current year show a nominal 066,686.

Warrants were ordered issued for the arrest of the managers of four Kansas City, Mo., dairies which stopped distribution of bottled milk Tuesday because of the milk grading ordinance.

The Japanese foreign office at San tablishments in Maryville, Cal., Wedneaday, July 21.

FIND NINETEEN REDS GUILTY STATE NEWS Millionaire Communist Receives 1 to IN BRIEF. 5-Year Sentence. *****************************

7767, or 25.9 per cant.

Salem .--- Vive La France, celebrated

Jersey cow owned by Pickard Bros. of Marion, Marion county, came within a pound of setting a new world's record for the production of butterfat during the year ended July 16, 1920, according to a telegram received by the own-

Hillsboro,-The Washington County

ers of the animal here.

within a week.

Chicago .- William Bross Lloyd, mil lionnire socialist, and 19 other members of the communist labor party, 931 in 1910, and 19,658 in 1900, accord-Brief Resume Most Important Monday night were found guilty by a jury of conspiracy to overthrow the United States government.

> The defendants received various sentences, most of them getting from one to five years in the penitentiary, a few being fined in addition, and several being sentenced to one year in jail. Lloyd got the heaviest sentenceone to five years in the penitentiary and a fine of $2000.

Max Bedacht of San Francisco, a reporter, received one to five years in prison and was fined $1000. Other sentences follows: L. E. Kat terfeld, Dayton, Kan., farmer, one to five years in the penitentiary; Ludwig Lore, alleged co-author of the com- Automotive association was organizmunist-labor party platform and au- ed at a meeting in Hillsboro Monday thor of alleged radical publications, night, attended by 28 dealers from all one to five years in the penitentiary; parts of the county. Robert E. Magner, L. K. England, Moline, Ill., member of field secretary of the National Autothe communist-labor party state exec- mobile Dealers' association, was pres-utive committee, one to five years in ent and assisted in the work of ormittee, one to five years in the peni-Air mail service from New York to tentiary and $1000 fine; Samuel Ash, Oscar Jesse Brown, De Kalb, Ill., one cago, one year in jail; Edwin Firth, Indianapolis, printer, one year in jail; S. F. Hankin, Chicago, one year in jail; Niels Kjar, Chicago, one to five years in the penitentiary; Charles Krumbein, Chicago, one year in jail; five years in the penitentiary; Arthur C. F. Sandberg, Chicago, one year in jail; Perry H. Shipman, Rock Island,

The sentences are for the state penitentiary and the Cook county jail. conspiracy to advocate the overthrow

Steel corporation for the second quar- of the government by force; conspir- the time they reach Albany they may acy to publish or distribute printed gain over the previous quarter amount- matter advocating overthrowing of ing to $43,155,705, an increase of $1, the government by force; conspiracy to belong to an organization advocating it, and conspiracy to attend meetings at which overthrowing the government by force was advocated.

Macleay Hoyne, state's attorney, in a statement, called the verdict a "signal victory for the United States."

"In this trial 'red' radicalism was driven into the open," said the state Francisco has asked for a complete ment. "One important issue decided investigation of the fire which destroy- was that the red card of the I. W. W. ed a number of Japanese business es- was international and not American Thursday is now under control. The American was the card of the Ameri- a dead tree, setting it afire. A strong she added as she went out.

dyke.'

of it.

here."

proach.

I'm going to grow a beard-a Van-

She fell strangely silent; and when she spoke he thought her voice sounded hard, unnatural. "I see, A disguise. How stupid of me not to think picked up the shaving mug and ap-peared to be interested in its contour

-"that means you will be leaving

He was in a quandary. He knew not how to answer. Deep down in his heart he knew he was going to leave her, was going to shut her out of his life. He had decided that again last night when drawing up his plans. But he could not tell her so now-not while she stood there questioning him, with such accusation, such bitter reed, her face reddening.

"You will, won't you?" she demand-

He chose the path of least resistance. He took the shaving mug from her hands, replaced it on the table, and put his arms around her and kissed her on the lips. It was probably the most prudent answer he could have made; and when, upon her repenting her question, less insistently, he said, "Don't think about unpleasant things," she promised to try, and lighted the oil stove and busied herself with breakfast preparations; and as she went about her work she

During brenkfast, however, she re-

"Daniel," she began, refilling his coffee cup, "I want you to tell me what you intend doing. I don't like "Really, I am surprised and saddened. I never suspected I was so

"I'll tell you what I'd like, Daniel."

Her voice was low and serious. "I'd like to have you go back to Russia with me. 'There's work to be done in Russia-Oh, such quantities of work!

-and you and I could do so much. Oh, hummed to herself almost happily.

turned to the troublesome topic.

you to have secrets from me."

transparent."

That means, of course"-she

"YOU LOVE HIM!"

Synopsis.-Typical tramp in ap-pearance, Daniei Randolph Fits-hugh, while crossing a Chicago street, causes the wreck of an auto, whose chauffeur disables it trying to avoid running him down. In pity the occupant of the auto, a young girl, saves him from arrest and gives him a dollar, telling him to buy soap, and wash. His sense of shame is touched, and he im-proves his appearance. That night, in a crowd of unemployed and an-archists, he meets Eather Strom and in a spirit of bravado makes a speech. Esther Induces Fitzhugh to address the radical meeting. He electrifies the crowd, and on part-ing the two agree to meet again. to address the radical meeting. Ine electrifies the crowd, and on part-ing the two agree to meet again. Fitzhugh visits Symington Otis, prominent financier, and displaying a package which he says contains dynamite, demands £0,000. Otis gives him a check. At the house he meets the girl who had given him the dollar, and learns she is Kathleen Otia. She recognizes him. Ashamed, he tears up the check and escapes, but is arrested. Eather visits Fitzhugh in jall and makes arrangements for procuring legal advice. His trial is spedily completed and he is found insane and committed to an asylum, from which he easily makes his escape. Fitzhugh takes refuge in Chicago with Esther, who has become in-fatuated with him, but with the thought of Kathleen in his mind he gives her no encouragement. Hough of her no encouragement. His one idea is to become rich and powerful, and win Kathieen. While hiding in Esther's house he grows a beard, which effectually changes his appearance.

And, heedless of his protestations, she told him. She was a widow. Her husband had been a Russian nihilist and was killed in Petrograd. After his death she had fled to America.

my story," he decided, when she fin-She noted the unwillingness in his

Daniel, you don't know what it's like ent," she reminded herself presently, and rose and started toward the door. "You must be hungry." She paused with her hand on the knob. there something else I can get you?"

"Yes; I wish you'd get me some eve ning newspapers." He ran his hand, first in one trousers pocket, then in the other, before remembering their emptiness. "Never mind," he told her.

She sprang up. Her brief gladness had fled. Her face was very white. "Then you are going to throw me over !" she blazed at him. "I thought so !"

"Have I ever shown any wild desire for your company?" he asked icily. He also was standing. His face was white, too. "In our short friendship has it not always been you who took the initiative?"

"But the first time we met you had no money, no place to sleep."

His brow darkened. "I thought I was going to have trouble with you. But never mind. I'll settle in full my account with you, and we'll quit even."

A furious torrent of words rushed to her tongue, but before she could loose it something occurred which, even in that tempestuous moment, dammed its flow. A shadow obliterated the sunlight, and she turned in time to see what cast it. A second later a peremptory knocking rattled the street door.

"Go to your room and lock yourself in !" she ordered, and pushed him before her toward the hall door. "It's Nikolay-the big Russian you met at Smulski's. He mustn't find you here. He's ready to kill you, almost. Do hurry! Run all the way to your room and lock the door."

He tarried no longer. Yet the excitement of the moment did not banish his diplomacy, for he pressed her hand and kissed her before going. After his departure she composed he.self at the breakfast table. The battering at the door swelled louder with every second.

Fitzhugh gone, Esther unbarred the door and admitted her visitor. "Come in Nikolay," she invited.

He entered, glowering, and sat in the chair Fitzhugh had vacated.

"Why did you keep me waiting?" be asked sullenly.

"Because," she replied evenly, "I was trying to decide whether or not I wanted to see you."

"And did you decide?"

She lifted one shoulder, with eloquent indifference, and stirred her coffee. "I had to let you in. Another minute, and you would have torn the house down."

He turned his massive head this way and that, sniffing the air very "I take it you care more for audibly. your friend who rolls his own cigarettes." He opened a box of Russians and lighted one.

She did not speak, and he went on: "You've taken quite a fancy to this young spellbinder, haven't you?"

"If you mean the boy who left just as you came-he's my brother."

Nikolay threw back his head, and gave a loud, mirthless laugh. "Brother ! Whaf'a liar!"

She caught her breath sharply and sat very erect, a crimson spot burning vividly in either dark cheek. Her bosom rose and fell stormily.

"Be careful what you say to me," she warned him; but the anger in her low voice seemed only to fan his jealousy to a fiercer flame.

He ground his teeth as he frowned at her, and the great hairy hand lying on his knee opened and closed. "You will equivocate, won't you? As if you could hoodwink me for one instant! Don't try it, you Esther. You know well enough why I loath this-this-" "Randolph Fitz," she supplied swiftly. So he did not know Fitzhugh's real name. That was good, "You know well enough, I say, It's Salem .- Members of a committee interested in the Tumalo irrigation district, which is a part of the Deschutes project in central Oregon, were here this week conferring with Percy A. Cupper, state engineer. The Tumalo project is under actual development and several hundred acres of valuable land have been reclaimed. Cottage Grove.-George Carlile was fined $100 and costs in justice court

Friday when he pleaded guilty to a J. Meisinger, Chicago, one year in charge of dynamiting trout in the Coast jail; Edgar Owens, Moline, Ill., one to Fork river on the morning of June 6. The complaint was filed and the Proctor, Chicago, one to five years in arrest made by Chief Deputy Game Warden Brown of Portland, and Deputy Warden Hawker of Albany.

Eugene .- The ferry boat plying the Willamette river at Harrisburg on the Pacific Highway sank last Thursday afternoon and traffic will have to be detoured by way of Coburg to Eugene The defendants were charged with if tourists reach Harrisburg, or if they learn of the sinking of the ferry by come by way of Corvallis and Monroe.

> Marshfield .- A long-delayed suit in the Coos county court was settled Wednesday by the payment of $700 by M. H. O'Brien as a compromise in the $10,000 asked by the county from the Marshfield Evening Record. The claim arose over what the officials charged was an overcharge for printing the county delinquent tax list a number of years ago.

Fossil .- Fire which has been raging on the Arthur Meyers ranch since "T'll do without." and that the only card recognized as fire was started when lightning struck soothingly. "It's only a few cents,"

CHAPTER IV-Continued.

"Now, of course, you want to hear ished. "Don't you?"

"Some other time," she anolce. swered. "I'd better get you something to "Isn't she asked.

"I'll get them all," she promised

The America's cup stays in America. This was decided shortly before sundown Tuesday when the American defender Resolute captured the 1920 regatta three to two by defeating Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock IV in the final race.

Dr. H. A. Dorten, the separatist leader, who was known as "president of the Rhineland republic." and who was arrested recently by German authorities, has been set free upon the government's order, the Lokal Anzeiger announces.

Arrival of Francisco Villa, bandit chieftain, at Sabinas Tuesday morning, was immediately followed by a sharp encounter with a government force of about 25 troops, all of whom are believed to have been killed, according to information reaching Eagle Pass. Tex.

Los Angeles and immediate vicinity experienced three more earth tremors. Tuesday afternoon. The most notice able shock came at 1:35 o'clock and was followed by two which were very light and which came a few seconds apart at 2:10 o'clock. No damage was reported. Another one at 12:22 A. M. awakened thousands of people.

The Lafayette wireless station near better communications with the United States, is virtually completed and will be handed over to the French government as soon as a few replacements arrive from the United States. This gives France the most powerful wireless station in the world.

An appeal in behalf of Thomas J. Mooney and Warren K. Billings, convicted in San Francisco in connection stopped the car. The infant was unwith the preparedness parade bomb harmed. explosion in 1916, was presented to the White House Tuesday by a committee representing the Amalgamated B. Mooney of San Francisco, a brother Police Jenkins. This is the first susof Thomas J. Mooney, headed the committee.

can working man in the American Federation of Labor." A motion for a new trial will be argued on September 25.

Russian Children Arrive.

San Francisco. - Russian children from Vladivostok, which port they left July 13 on the steamer Yomei Petrograd, from which they were taken when the revolution swept Russia The American Red Cross has charleaving here the steamer will proceed through the Panama canal and touch at New York. Red Cross workers are accompanying the children.

During the three days the steamer is here the children will be taken on sightseeing tours.

Britain Maintains Grip,

London .- The cabinet at Monday's session is reported virtually to have completed the new Irish bill, provid ing for trial without jury in Ireland and giving the military and police wider powers for apprehending suspected persons. The crown will appoint the high justice and other court Bordeaux, France, the construction of officials, who will sit only in Dublin which was undertaken by the Ameri- to obviate the possibility of attack if can navy during the war to provide court sessions were to be held in remote localities.

Baby Narrowly Escapes.

Racine, Wis .-- A go-cart containing a two-year-old child rolled off a side walk here Monday and its handle was caught by a passing interurban car.

The cart was dragged three blocks before frantic pedestrians' signals

Salem .-- The chauffeur's license ispension of a chauffeur's license under out by the figures in the assessor's the motor vehicle law.

wind spread the flames to the hay fields. Neighbors came to Mr. Meyers' assistance and it was believed the fire was extinguished, but on account of wind it was revived several times.

Salem .- School funds of the state aggregating $432,267.88, based on a per 760 in number, arrived here Monday capita of $2.02 for the 213,994 persons of school age in Oregon, were apportioned among the various countles by Maru, en route to their homes in O. P. Hoff, state treasurer. The total apportioned for 1920 shows an increase of $23,522.53 over that of 1919. In 1919 the per capita was $1.95, while tered the Yomei Maru for the journey at the time of making the apportion-from Vladivostok to Petrograd. After ment in 1918 the per capita was $1.83.

Prineville,-Ochoco dam, the reservoir for the Ochoco irrigation project, ink, this is what he saw: was completed at noon July 26. The dam is the fourth highest in the United States and the largest in the northwest. The maximum height is 126 feet. It is 1000 feet long and 600 feet thick at the base, contains 541,000 cubic yards of earth and rock and is 18 feet wide on top.

Salem .-- The Oregon Jersey Cattle club will hold a sale of high-bred stock during the annual convention of the Pacific International Livestock show to be held in Portland in November, according to plans announced here last week following a conference attended by C. N. "Pat" McArthur of Portland, Ed. Carey of Carleton and C. C. Dixon of Shedd. E. A. Rhoten, a local newspaper man, has been selected as salesmanager.

Bend .- "Not back to the farm," but 'away from the farm," has been the trend of life in Deschutes county this year, as shown in the summary of agricultural statistics just completed here by W. T. Mullarky, assessor. Deputy assessors report that in many instances farms were uncultivated.

their owners yielding to the lure of high wages to be obtained in the sued to Albert Kunz, of Portland, was cities, while in other cases lands Association of Street and Electrical revoked by Sam A. Kozer, secretary hitherto rated as agricultural were Railway Employes of America. John of state, at the request of Chief of actually abandoned, chiefly by homesteaders. These statements were borne report.

When she returned, bearing a tray of food and a bundle of newspapers, Fitzhugh had made his tollet and looked a little more presentable-or. rather, a little less unkempt.

He threw aside the more conservative journals, which announced his escape in staid paragraphs, and read first those saffron-colored ones, which told the news with huge black type against pink and green backgrounds. The first one shricked at him:

MANIAC ESCAPES! OVERPOWERS GUARD AND FLEES IN STORM!

He smiled and turned to the next one. Then he started and sat up very straight. Lavishly smeared over the damp front page, smelling of printer's

MADMAN MISSING! $1,000 FOR CAPTURE! SYMINGTON OTIS OFFERS RE-WARD11

He read it again and again, enjoying the notoriety to the full. He had come into the limelight. . . .

When Esther knocked at his room next morning about eight, Fitzhugh had been up an hour.

"Come to my room as soon as you're dressed : I've a surprise for you.

He listened until he could no longer hear her footsteps on the uncarpeted stairs, then opened the door and found, just without, a parcel. Opening it, he disclosed a complement of underwear. socks, shirt, collar and tie. There was also a cap. Again he experienced an uncomfortable feeling of gratitude and shame for accepting, perforce, so much from a woman. In a closet at the end of the hall he had unearthed an old wooden clothes-tub. He filled it at the hydrant, carried it to his room, and stripped and enjoyed a cold bath. Then, arrayed in his new haberdashery, he went to his benefactress. "You have three guesses," she cried gayly, holding her hands behind her, her face radiant. She fumbled with what she held behind her, shifting it to one hand, reached up, playfully tweaked his unshaven cheek rubbed her paim against its stubby grain. "Now can you guess?"

He nodded, smiling. "You've bought me a shaving outfit," he said soberly. "I'm sorry. I'm not going to shave. have done for me—I doubt if it can—but if it can. Est repay you a hundredfold."

in Russia-the poverty, the misery, the millions cowed by tyranny. They They are groping in the darkness. need light. They must be taught that all workingmen are their comrades, all the rich their foes. They must be taught to strike back when they are struck-"

"See here, Esther !" Fitzhugh's clenched fist struck the table a ringing blow. His quiet demeanor had radically changed, "Tve something I want to tell you. Henceforth my brain, my energy, every particle of me, will work toward but one end-Material Success. Money means Power, and Power is my goal. I've known all along I could reach it. I shall have to be cold, heartless, selfish. There's no other way. The poor !- pooh ! What are the poor but beasts of burden to pack and carry for their masters, who are the rich and intelligent."

As he talked Esther crouched back in her chair, cringing from him as though each word he spoke was a whip-lash across her face.

"Naturally, you hadn't thought of me." she murmured, when he paused, "On the contrary," he said, and there was a hidden meaning in his words, which, keen as she was, escaped her, you are the person of whom I'm thinking most just now." • A glad light sprang into her eyes.

"Then you are going to take me up with you! With your money-you see, I take it for granted you will become wealthy-how much we could do for the underclasses !"

He tossed away his cigarette, took a swallow of coffee, put down his cup abruptly. "I'll do the square thing by you-remember that. Perhaps money cannot compensate you for all you have done for me-I doubt very much if it can-but if it can, Esther, I shall ecause you love him. He jumped up, kicked his chair out of the way, and began pacing the floor savagely. "You can't be serious, Nikolay !" She made a brave effort at gayety. "I care for him? Surely you are jesting." She tilted back her chair, as he stopped and towered over her, and smiled up at him coquettishiy.

"Why will you torture me so?" he cried, holding out his great arms to her. "Can't you see how I love you? Don't you know I've loved you for years? And this Fitz!"-he spat the word out-"this vagabond of a Fitz! You've known him but a few weeks, yet you're- Surely you cannot love him! Tell me that you don't. Tell me-tell me, Esther, that you love only met

The woman knew how to act. She hesitated, smiled up at him demurely; then, breathing to herself the name of the man she loved, she rose, and, with her eyes closed tightly, held up her lips to the man she despised.

Some while later Nikolay took his departure.

Nikolay, the big Russian.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Ski Jumping in Summer

Since the first cave men slid down glacier, skiing has been considered a cold-weather sport. Among the snowclad hills of the cold north countries skiing has developed until it is the national sport of Norway. But now comes an expert skl jumper who established his own precedent, in good American fashion, by skiing on the hottest summer day. Of odds and ends he has built a slide, approximately 100 feet long and terminating at a gap of 25 feet, beyond which is a landing incline of heavier, broader construction and surfaced with canvas. This is kept slippery by applying sonp and lard .- Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Had Preferred Position.

Walford came home from the neighbors and his mother inquired what he was doing. He said they had been playing war and were knocking the boys down. His mother then inquired if he wasn't afraid of being hurt. "Oh. no; I was one of the knockers," he replied.