Conley-Justesen

Miss Nell Conley and Theodore Justesen (better known as "Tate") were quietly married in Portland recently and are now living on his ranch near Kent. Miss Conley is well known in this vicinity for she attended high school in The Dalles and was formerly employed by the A. M. Williams company. Later she went to business college in Portland and was in business there until last May. Miss Conley came to Tygh Valley to visit friends and relatives a few weeks ago, but went away to Portland and Seaside without telling anyone she expected to be married. —Mr. Justesen is a prominent and popular farmer of Sherman county, and served with the American army in France. —The Dalles Chronicle.
