JAMES H. HAZLETT

FOR

STATE SENATOR

The present candidates for state senator from this district are both from Hood River County. They were also candidates for the same office in 1913, at which time Nickelsen was defeated by Hazlett in Hood River County, the home of both men, by a majority of 178 votes, the vote being as follows:

JOHN R. NICKELSEN 544

Senator Nickelsen has printed a part of his record in the state senate from the Oregon Voter, but he has not printed all of that record, especially his vote on the gasoline bill. The Oregon Voter of May 1 1920 has the following comment pertaining to his vote on this bill.

"His vote would have passed the gasoline bill that would have saved Oregon auto owners upwards of $400,000 a year, but he voted against the bill and thereby defeated it. In previous sessions he had voted for repeal of specific gravity test, and his special session vote was in effect a reversal.

John R. Nickelsen

The Republican Candidate

For

STATE SENATOR

PRESENT INCUMBENT

He has had the experience necessary to make an able and valued legislator for Hood River and Wasco County. He has served on important committees and his previous record should commend his candidacy. Oregon Voter February 15 1919—Senator John R. Nickelsen of Hood River is winning the confidence and the compliments of his colleagues, and of many who are watching the members closely. He exhibits a lot of sound sense in voting and is regarded as a credit to the two Counties which elected him.

Oregon Voter May 1 1920—Senator John R. Nickelsen was very attentive to roll calls; missed few; not a dodger. Won universal respect as a high-minded, clean legislator, somewhat prejudiced against business but voting on his own conception of merit and without regards to politics. This was his first term; experience should develop him into a senator of great value to the state. His value to the agricultural interests of the state cannot be discounted save as to the indirect effect on prices and taxes of some of the legislation he supported intending to serve the farmer's interest.
