English Conquest of Ireland
 The conquest of Ireland by the English was a gradual process. The first step was taken by Henry II, who is said to have obtained a bull from Pope Hadrian IV, authorizing him to take possession of the country. The Tudors steadily pursued the policy of taking land from the Irish chiefs and giving it to English settlers. The final act of the union was passed and proclaimed on January 1, 1801.

Old Use of Mirrors.
 Mirrors were used by Anglo-Saxon women, slung to their girdles. The same custom obtained in the time of Elizabeth and James I. They formed the center of many fans at that period. Before glass was invented, horn was used.

Another Question.
 A French woman claims to understand the language of frogs. But will she give the frog a chance to talk?

 The number of words used by children two years old varies from a very few words for the backward child up to 1,000 words for more precocious children. The average number is put at between 200 and 400.
Value of Ton of Gold.
