CORSETS

You have been impressed with the smartly dressed appearance of your friends and others. You realize that it was not necessarily the price of the gown or the quality of the material that made this impression, but you were convinced that it was due to the indescribable hang of the gown which produced the superior and attractive lines. Appreciating as we do the importance of the corset, we most cordially recommend Henderson corsets to all ladies who are interested in their figure, appearance, their poise, and their carriage; we feature these corsets because they will accomplish everything that can possibly be desired or expected in a corset. Henderson Corsets are not necessarily high priced, though of high quality.
