Power in Solitude.
Solitude is the soil of solemn thoughts and great deeds. Moses tends sheep on the lonely heaths for years before he beholds the Burning Bush. He climbs Sinai alone to write the tables of the law. Cromwell follows the plow as a Huntingdon farmer until he is forty. Then he steers the Puritan revolution which begot these United States.—Boston Herald.

Custom of Wearing Shoes.
The sandal, the earliest and simplest shoe, was known by the most primitive races and was certainly worn by the ancient Egyptians. The Hittites wore shoes, often with gaiters above to protect the ankle and calf of the leg.

Mountain Scenery.
One of the principal charms of mountain scenery is its solitude.—Ruskin.

The Vatican.
The Vatican, the palace of the pope in Rome and one of the largest in the world, contains a valuable collection of works of art, and is one of the chief attractions of the city. It is a storehouse of literary treasures and documents of interest bearing on the history of the Middle Ages.

Education.
Education is the leading of human souls to what is best and making what is best out of them, and these two objects are always attainable together and by the same means. The training which makes men happiest in themselves also makes them most serviceable to others.—Ruskin.

The Bushel as a Weight.
A bushel is now regarded as a definite weight rather than a measure of cubic contents. Various products, however, have different weights to the bushel. Wheat, according to the bureau of crop estimates, weighs 60 pounds to the bushel.

Watch Expenditures.
If he who is always hard up will but keep a record of his expenditures he may find that he is more lacking in sense than in dollars.

Flavor for Wines.
Greeks and Romans flavor their wines by steeping the leaves of violets and roses in the liquor until it acquires the odor.

Sandpapering Paint.
In removing old paint dampen the sandpaper with benzine and the work can be accomplished in half the time.

Stanfield.—Work has started on the drainage ditch through the city which will drain the whole of Stage gulch, in which Stanfield is located. The district has been bonded for $30,000, which will be sufficient to construct a ditch of such proportions that there will never need be alarm of flood water again.

The report was filed with Governor Olcott and will be submitted to the ways and means committee later in the legislative session.

Salem.—County warrants are not proper security in lieu of United States bonds, school district bonds, county bonds, school district bonds, municipal bonds and securities accepted by the government for savings banks, according to a legal opinion given by Attorney-General Van Winkle. The opinion was asked by the district attorney of Curry county.

Salem.—The 1919-1920 edition of the Oregon Blue Book has been exhausted, and many requests for the book remain unfilled, according to Sam A. Kozar, secretary of state. Approximately 2200 copies of the book were printed. Mr. Kozar said that he probably would appeal to the legislature for additional funds in order that the next edition of the book may be increased by several thousand copies.

Eugene.—The Lane county grand jury will investigate the report that moonshine has been manufactured on the state game farm near this city, according to Clyde N. Johnston, district attorney. The district attorney questioned one of the employees of the farm suspected of making the illicit liquor and he is reported as having told that the alleged mash found buried was a mixture that he used to feed the chickens on the place but that it had soured and he had buried it to get rid of it.

The grain, part of which may be salvaged, was valued at $125,000; the warehouse, totally destroyed, at $10,000, and the other destroyed merchandise at $4000 to $5000.

A WOMAN'S BURDENS

are lightened when she turns to the right medicine. If her existence is made gloomy by weaknesses and painful disorders, she will find relief from her troubles in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. If she's overworked, nervous, or "run-down," she finds new life and strength. It's an invigorating tonic and nerve for "woman's complaints" and weaknesses, and for young girls just entering womanhood.

Safeguarding the Children.

Frederick Burlingham, American explorer, just returned from central Borneo, tells of methods employed by natives to protect young children from wild boar, boa constrictors, and poisonous insects. The children are swathed in garments and swung on rattan vines suspended between trees. Crocodiles take a large toll of children in Borneo, says the explorer, despite precautions taken.

Take care of your health, and wealth will take care of you. Garfield Tea promotes health.—Adv.

"Civic Crown."

This was merely a wreath of oak leaves with pendant acorns and was one of the most highly valued honors a Roman could attain. It was given for saving the life of a citizen in battle, at the same time killing the opponent and maintaining the ground upon which the fight took place. One to whom it was given had a right to wear it always.

Stop That "Croaking."
A "frog in the throat" soon quits "croaking" when the patient partakes of the palatable and soothing home remedy of equal portions of honey and lemon juice. It has been found invaluable in relieving acute hoarseness and irritation of the throat and larynx.

As we grow more sensible, we refuse drug cathartics and take instead Nature's herb cure, Garfield Tea.—Adv.

"Spare" in Readiness.
A little girl was on a ferry boat with her mother. Evidently being the first time she was on a boat, she looked around and took everything in.
