Subscription: One year, $1.50; six months, 75 cents; three months, 50 cents

Entered as second class mail matter September 2, 1914, at the postoffice at Maupin, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Suppose

Suppose an editor should, just for once, relieve his mind by printing all the news he happened to know at that minute? Options would be thrown up, citizens arrested, families disrupted, fights fought on every street corner, candidates resigning, ministers leaving for distant parts, lawyers taking long vacations, business men turning toing over to their clerks for a season, hired girls hunting new jobs, and so on down a long list of casualties—and the editor would be so mused up that his course couldn't be identified by his own family. A newspaper man doesn't know everything, but his work is such that he hears a lot that common sense, common decency and common prudence keep out of the paper.—Inter-Mountain Press and Printer.

Case 15-27 Kerosene Tractor

In fields where plowing is difficult—tough or baked soil, stiff grades, etc.—this Case 15-27 Kerosene Tractor will pull 3 plows easily. Where conditions are favorable, this tractor can pull 4 plows.

So it is a favorite on the average farm. It is neither too large nor too small.

In addition to its field work, it is designed for belt work, having the pulley properly placed. It will drive a Case 26x46 Thresher equipped with feeder and wind stacker or other machines requiring similar power.

The Case 15-27 has abundant reserve power. While rated at 15 horsepower on the drawbar, it can deliver more than 18 horsepower. While rated at 27 on the belt, it can deliver 33 horsepower. It is ever ready for the hardest jobs. It never tires.

All gears are cut steel, enclosed and run in oil. It has a four-cylinder valve-in-head motor, mounted crosswise on a one-piece main frame. This affords the use of all spur gears.

A Case Synchro Thermostat controls the cooling system and insures complete combustion of kerosene. A Case air washer delivers clean air to the carburetor.

There are dozens of betterments found only in this tractor. You should be familiar with them, so that you may make a careful comparison.

May we have the opportunity soon to point out Case superiorities?
