Base Ball

The first ball game of the season played on the local field was pulled off last Sunday afternoon between teams from Madras and Madras.

It proved to be a hard fought game. At the end of the 9th inning the score was 5 to 5 and the boys kept going until 13th inning were played, neither side being able to make another run at this time. It was decided to quit and call the game a tie.

The game was a success in every particular and seem to be enjoyed by everyone present.

The batteries for the game were, Maupin—pitchers, Morrow and Morris, catcher, Rerick Madras—pitcher, Dick Young catcher, H. Young.

On account of conditions there will be only a practice game at Maupin next Sunday.

On April 3rd Antelope and Maupin and April 10th The Dalles and Maupin will play on the local field. If the proper interest is shown in base ball this year manager Stovall expects to play a large number of games at home.

Every body remember the big games April 3rd and 10th at Maupin.

The plan for collective marketing of wheat will be explained in detail by these men who are thoroughly familiar with every part of the new system.

Every farmer of this section is urgently requested to lay aside his work on that day and be present.

Wool Weavers

The announcement that the wool growers of Washington are planning to market their products as cloth instead of raw material, with the object in view of eliminating the marketing charges of the middleman, is of unusual interest not only on account of its being a new departure in the wool industry of the state but as a possible plan for disposing of a large part of the wool of other sections of the northwest.

The announcement, it is stated follows a trial of the plan which was put into effect recently by having some Washington wool made into cloth at a local woolen mill and then sold to local tailors. The plan worked successfully and the idea now is for the Washington Wool-growers' association to contract with manufacturers to have the association establish a department for the marketing of the cloth with the makers of clothing.

While the beginning of this new idea in marketing the wool crop of Washington is small in its way, it presents possibilities that may prove most important and of great benefit in the future. At least it presents in a tentative way the opportunity for an added channel for the disposal of part of the northwest wool crop profitably.

School Notes

Last Thursday and Friday examination days for the High School room and the class leaders were:

Senior—Ida Duncan.
Junior—Lester Crofoot.
Freshman—Hazel Williams.

Those averaging above 90 per cent are Mabel Cyr, Hazel Williams, Jessie Walters, Ida Duncan Orland Walters, Lewis Derthick and Lorraine Stovall.

On account of the illness of Miss Mary Page, the intermediate teacher, Wednesday, some of the high school girls were called to teach in her place. Ida Duncan one of our will be graduates this year, taught in the forenoon and Mabel Cyr and Hazel Williams in the afternoon.

The committee in charge of the preparations for the community dinner for the local institute April 2nd at the school house invites each lady of the Maupin school community to bring a general picnic lunch to be served in common. Coffee and other refreshments will be served at the school house.

The talks and exercises of the institute will, of course, be educational, but for that reason should be of special interest to each patron within reach of Maupin, and each one is invited to spend the day, or a portion of the day at least at the institute. Let every one possible be present and extend a hearty welcome to the teachers of southern Wasco County. The school orchestra will help entertain you.

The track team work is coming along as nice as ever

NOTICE TO OWNERS OF PROPERTY IN WASCO COUNTY

In accordance with Chapter 127 of the General Laws of Oregon it is the duty of all owners of property infested with ground squirrels, gophers, sage rats, or other noxious rodents to eradicate such rodents by poisoning or other effective means. April 10, 1921, is hereby set as the date on or before which such poisoning may be done.

Any suitable poison may be used. Poison is now available in most communities and can also be obtained from the office of the county agricultural agent.

The presence of large numbers of rodents upon any land after April 10, 1921, shall be deemed sufficient evidence that such land has not been poisoned. Persons appointed by the county court for that purpose are authorized to enter upon any property not poisoned by April 10, 1921, and poison the same. The costs of such poison and labor will be added to the taxes of the owners of such land.

An earnest appeal is made to all property owners to enter into the spirit of the law and make a sincere attempt to destroy the rodents which do thousands of dollars worth of damage every year.

(Signed) E. R. Jackman,
County Agent.
