Boy, Page Sherlock Holmes

San Diego, Cal., July 6, 1921. Maupin Times:

I am taking the liberty to mail you a letter that I found on the davenport in my apartment this morning, addressed at Wapinitia June 29th, 1921. Hoping you will receive it in time for the next issue.

Also please find enclosed my check for $1.50 subscription.

Yours very truly,
Fen Batty.

P. S.—I haven't seen any spooks here since Sam Brown's and Dee Woodside's were here last winter.

The letter which Mr. Batty sent is the regular Wapinitia news letter to the Times which was received after the issue for June 30 had been printed. It was supposedly misplaced and could not be found to copy for last Thursday's paper. The mystery of its transportation, with the seal unbroken to Mr. Batty's apartments might be an interesting story if a solution is to be found.

This is the second of his regular trips to this city. He will continue these trips regularly each month.
