He heard a crashing of glass, the clanging of a bell, the shriek of a police whistle, the clatter of heavy soled shoes on the pavement and a few harsh commands.
Mr. Bruntz stopped. His halt was due partly to curiosity and partly to the fact that he couldn't go any farther. Something had anchored his car to Randolph street. It coughed, sputtered and listed to starboard.
Just as the motorist got out to see what might be the trouble an automobile loaded with policemen turned

The Uninvited Guest.
One evening I dropped in to see some intimate friends. When I entered the house I discovered to my surprise that they had friends for dinner. Before I could excuse myself their youngest daughter, Elizabeth, asked me if I had been invited to the party. Upon answering in the negative, she said, "Well, why did you come?"—Chicago Tribune.

Cuticura Comforts Baby's Skin
When red, rough and itching with hot baths of Cuticura Soap and touches of Cuticura Ointment. Also make use now and then of that exquisitely scented dusting powder, Cuticura Talcum, one of the indispensable Cuticura Toilet Trio.—Adv.

Playing Cards.
Although it is commonly reported that playing cards were invented in France in 1392 to divert Charles VI, D'Allemagne, a French writer on the subject, mentions them as being in use in Belgium in 1397, and probably something analogous to them—marked discs or counters—have been employed in the East from remote antiquity. It is now usually thought that it was in Italy playing cards were first made, about 1370, and at Venice.

Eruptions of Kilauea.
The great eruptions from the volcano of Kilauea, in the eastern part of the Island of Hawaii, were those of 1789, 1823, 1832, 1840 and 1868. Kilauea-iki, a companion crater lying a mile north of the main crater, is now extinct.

Despite the fact that a cat rarely moves, it seldom becomes as fat as a dog would under similar circumstances. This is because its immobility is not that of inaction; its nerves are working while its muscles seem at rest.

As to Immortality.
If I am wrong in thinking the human soul immortal, I am glad to be wrong; nor will I allow the mistake which gives me so much pleasure to be wrested from me as long as I live. But if when dead, as some insignificant philosophers think, I am to be without sensation, I am not afraid of dead philosophers deriding my errors. Again, if we are not to be immortal, it is nevertheless what a man must wish—to have his life end at its proper time. For nature puts a limit to living as to everything else.—Cicero "On Old Age."

Huck Finn Was Considered "Harmful."
It is interesting to remember when one sees "Adventures of Huckleberry Finn" listed as one of the 30 books necessary for all-around culture by the New York public library, that when the book was new, some 25 years ago, the Boston public library and others about the country refused to place the book in the circulating departments. The reason, as published, was that the book would be harmful to the youthful mind.—Milwaukee Journal.

Egyptians First in Field.
The earliest objects that civilization possesses in the way of ancient pottery show that the Egyptians were probably the first to use glazes, but the practice may have originated independently wherever a knowledge of early glazes were of the alkaline type, which had to be first fused into a glass before it could be applied to pottery.

Many Missing.
Every year no fewer than 30,000 persons are reported missing in London alone. Some of them are never seen nor heard of again; others, after weeks or months of absence, return and take up the threads of their former life as if they had never left it.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Old Japanese Title.
Tycoon is the title by which the Shoguns of Japan were known to foreigners since the signing of the treaty in 1854 by Commodore Perry on behalf of the United States and Iyessada, the shogun of Japan.

No Longer Popular.
No matter how black or threatening the outlook, keep working, keep visualizing your life dream, and some unexpected way will surely open for its fulfillment. The abiding faith in a power which will bring things out right in the end, which will harmonize discord, has always been strong in men and women who have done great things in the world.—Orison Sweet Marden, in Chicago Daily News.

Didn't Have the Price.
Returning home from the dentist's, where he had gone to have a loose tooth drawn, little Raymond reported as follows: "The doctor told me 'fore he began that if I cried or screamed it would cost me a dollar, but if I was a good boy it would be only 50 cents." "Did you scream?" his mother asked. "How could I?" answered Ray; "you only gave me 50 cents."

As a Business Proposition.
The Westminster magistrate, the other day, described a prisoner as "a very clever thief." It is said that the fellow intends printing this testimonial on his letter paper.—Punch, London.

All Want More.
An eastern capitalist says too much money is a bad thing. We have yet, however, to hear anyone admit that he had too much.

Quality Appreciated.
As little Rose was walking along the sidewalk with me, I asked her if she would like to walk on the elevated curb. It seemed to be just the thing she wanted to do, because she said to me, "Oh, you are a good asker."—Chicago American.

But They're Scarce.
Our idea of the right kind of girl is one who can dance well, but doesn't act as if the rest of humanity were merely her dance floor.—Dallas News.

Unfortunate Oversight.
Jud Tunkins says the man who used to think it was cheaper to move than pay rent has discovered that he reckoned without his next landlord.

for the New Model
DORT
Quality Goes Clear Through

This is not only one of the most beautiful cars in America, but one of the most economical to operate. It is not at all surprising to get from 23 to 25 miles to a gallon of gasoline. The mileage on tires is equally high. This along with the fact that the New Model DORT has unlimited power makes it your kind of a car.

And think of it—you may own one of these remarkable motor cars at $985 factory. And on our easy payment plan, too. Write us direct—today—or see your local Dort dealer.

Some very desirable territory still open to responsible parties who would like to act as dealers. Very attractive proposition.
